required for TRAVEL when such TRAVEL IS NOT for the purpose of [COMMERCIAL] PROFIT OR GAIN on the open highways operating under license IN COMMERCE. The above named Common Law Citizen listed IS NOT OPERATING IN COMMERCE and as such is thereby EXEMPTED FROM THE REQUIREMENT OF A LICENSE AS SUCH. Further, the Texas state, is FORBIDDEN BY LAW from converting a BASIC RIGHT into a PRIVILEGE and requiring a LICENSE and or a FEE CHARGED for the exercise of the BASIC RIGHT. Please SEE MURDOCK vs. PENNSYLVANIA, 319 U.S. 105, and if Texas, state does ERRONEOUSLY convert BASIC RIGHTS into PRIVILEGES and require a License or FEE a Citizen may IGNORE THE LICENSE OR FEE WITH TOTAL IMMUNITY FOR SUCH EXERCISE OF A BASIC RIGHT. Please see Schuttlesworth vs. BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA, 373 U.S. 262. Now if a Citizen exercises a BASIC RIGHT and a Law of ANY state is to the contrary of such exercise of that BASIC RIGHT, the said supposed Law of ANY state is a FICTION OF LAW and 100% TOTALY UNCONSTITUTIONAL and NO COURTS ARE BOUND TO UPHOLD IT AND NO citizen is REQUIRED TO OBEY SUCH UNCONSTITUTIONAL LAW OR LICENSE REQUIREMENT. Please see MARBURY vs. MADISON, 5 U.S. 137 (1803), which has never been overturned in over 194 years, see Shephard's Citations. Now further, if a Citizen relies in good faith on the advice of Counsel and or on the Decisions of the UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT that Citizen has a PERFECT DEFENSE to the element of WILLFULNESS and since the burden of proof of said WILLFULNESS is on the Prosecution to prove beyond a REASONABLE DOUBT, said task or burden being totally impossible to specifically perform there is NO CAUSE OF ACTION FOR WHICH RELIEF MAY BE GRANTED BY A COURT OF LAW. Please see U.S. vs.

Bishop 412 U.S. 346. OBVIOUSLY THERE IS NO

LAWFUL CHARGE AGAINST EXERCISING A BASIC
Right to TRAVEL for a regular Common Law Citizen NOT IN COMMERCE on the common way Public HIGHWAY.
THAT IS THE LAW!!!The above named Citizen IS

IMMUNE FROM ANY CHARGE TO THE CONTRARY AND ANY PARTY MAKING SUCH CHARGE SHOULD BE DUTY WARNED OF THE TORT OF TRESPASS!!!
YOU ARE TRESPASSING ON THIS Common Law

Citizen!!!

2) The original and Judicial jurisdiction of the United States Supreme Court is ALL actions in which a State may be party, thru subdivision, political or trust. This includes ALL state approved subdivisions and/or INCORPORATED Cities, Townsships, Municipalities, and Villages, Et Al. Please see Article 3, Section 2, Para. (1) and (2), U.S. Constitution.
3) The undersigned has NEVER willingly and knowingly entered into ANY Contract or Contractual agreement giving up ANY Constitutional Rights which are secured by the CONSTITUTION, the SUPREME LAW OF THE LAND. This Common Law Citizen has NOT harmed any party, has NOT threatened any party, and that includes has NOT threatened or caused any endangerment to the safety or well being of any party and would leave any claimant otherwise to their strictest proofs otherwise IN A COURT OF LAW. The above named Citizen is merely exercising the BASIC RIGHT TO TRAVEL
UNENCUMBERED and UNFETTERED on the Common public way or highway, which is their RIGHT TO SO DO!!!

Please see Zobel vs. Williams, 457 U.S. 55, held the RIGHT TO TRAVEL is Constitutionally PROTECTED!!

4) Conversion of the RIGHT TO TRAVEL into a PRIVILEGE and or CRIME is A FRAUD and is in clear and direct conflict with the UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION, THE

SUPREME LAW OF THE LAND. LAWS made by any state, which are clearly in direct CONFLICT or REPUGNANCY are UNCONSTITUTIONAL and are NOT WITH STANDING IN LAW AND ARE BEING CHALLENGED AS SUCH HERE AND THEREBY ARE NULL AND VOID OF LAW ON

THEIR FACE. NO COURTS ARE BOUND TO UPHOLD

SUCH FICTIONS OF LAW AND NO Citizen is bound to obey such a FICTION OF LAW. SUCH REGULATION OR LAW

OPERATES AS A MERE NULLITY OR FICTION OF LAW AS IF IT NEVER EXISTED IN LAW. NO CITIZEN IS BOUND TO OBEY SUCH UNCONSTITUTIONAL LAWS!!!

5) The payment for a privilege requires a benefit to be received As the RIGHT TO TRAVEL is already secured it is clearly unlawful to cite any charges without direct damage to the specific party . Nor may a Citizen be charged with an offense for the exercise of a CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHT, in this case the RIGHT TO TRAVEL. Please see Miller vs. UNITED STATES

230 F2d 486 . Nor may a Citizen be denied DUE PROCESS OF LAW or EQUAL PROTECTION UNDER THE LAW.

6) The undersigned does hereby claim, declare, and certify ANY AND ALL their CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS INVIOATE from GOD and secured in THE UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION and the CONSTITUTION OF THE state wherein they abode as a SOVEREIGN, COMMON LAW CITIZEN existing and acting entirely AT THE COMMON

LAW, and retains ALL BASIC RIGHTS under the CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

NATURE AND NATURE'S GOD AND UNDER THE LAWS
OF GOD THE SUPREME LAW GIVER.
7) ANY VIOLATOR OF THE ABOVE CONSTRUCTIVE
NOTICE AND CLAIM IS CRIMINALLY TRESPASSING
UPON THIS ABOVE NAMED COMMON LAW Citizen and WILL BE PROSECUTED TO THE FULLEST EXTENT UNDER THE SUPREME LAW OF THE LAND.
BE WARNED OF THE TRESPASS AND THE ATTACHED CAVETS. ALSO TAKE CONSTRUCTIVE

U.S. Supreme Court says No License Necessary To Drive Automobile On Public Highways/Streets

U.S. SUPREME COURT AND OTHER HIGH COURT CITATIONS PROVING THAT NO
LICENSE IS NECESSARY FOR NORMAL USE OF AN AUTOMOBILE ON COMMON WAYS

"The right of a citizen to travel upon the public highways and to transport his property thereon, by horse-drawn carriage, wagon, or automobile, is not a mere privilege which may be permitted or prohibited at will, but a common right which he has under his right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Under this constitutional guaranty one may, therefore, under normal conditions, travel at his inclination along the public highways or in public places, and while conducting himself in an orderly and decent manner, neither interfering with nor disturbing another's rights, he will be protected, not only in his person, but in his safe conduct."

Thompson v. Smith, 154 SE 579, 11 American Jurisprudence, Constitutional Law, section 329, page 1135 "The right of the Citizen to travel upon the public highways and to transport his property thereon, in the ordinary course of life and business, is a common right which he has under the right to enjoy life and liberty, to acquire and possess property, and to pursue happiness and safety. It includes the right, in so doing, to use the ordinary and usual conveyances of the day, and under the existing modes of travel, includes the right to drive a horse drawn carriage or wagon thereon or to operate an automobile thereon, for the usual and ordinary purpose of life and business." —

Thompson vs. Smith, supra; Teche Lines vs. Danforth, Miss., 12 S.2d 784 "... the right of the citizen to drive on a public street with freedom from police interference... is a fundamental constitutional right" - White, 97 Cal.App.3d.141, 158 Cal.Rptr. 562, 566-67 (1979) "citizens have a right to drive upon the public streets of the District of Columbia or any other city absent a constitutionally sound reason for limiting their access."

Caneisha Mills v. D.C. 2009 "The use of the automobile as a necessary adjunct to the earning of a livelihood in modern life requires us in the interest of realism to conclude that the RIGHT to use an automobile on the public highways partakes of the nature of a liberty within the meaning of the Constitutional guarantees. . . ."

Berberian v. Lussier (1958) 139 A2d 869, 872, See also: Schecter v. Killingsworth, 380 P.2d 136, 140; 93 Ariz. 273 (1963). "The right to operate a motor vehicle [an automobile] upon the public streets and highways is not a mere privilege. It is a right of liberty, the enjoyment of which is protected by the guarantees of the federal and state constitutions."

Adams v. City of Pocatello, 416 P.2d 46, 48; 91 Idaho 99 (1966). "A traveler has an equal right to employ an automobile as a means of transportation and to occupy the public highways with other vehicles in common use."

Campbell v. Walker, 78 Atl. 601, 603, 2 Boyce (Del.) 41. "The owner of an automobile has the same right as the owner of other vehicles to use the highway, * * * A traveler on foot has the same right to the use of the public highways as an automobile or any other vehicle."

Simone v. Lindsay, 65 Atl. 778, 779; Hannigan v. Wright, 63 Atl. 234, 236. "The RIGHT of the citizen to DRIVE on the public street with freedom from police interference, unless he is engaged in suspicious conduct associated in some manner with criminality is a FUNDAMENTAL CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHT which must be protected by the courts." People v. Horton 14 Cal. App. 3rd 667 (1971) "The right to make use of an automobile as a vehicle of travel along the highways of the state, is no longer an open question. The owners thereof have the same rights in the roads and streets as the drivers of horses or those riding a bicycle or traveling in some other vehicle."

House v. Cramer, 112 N.W. 3; 134 Iowa 374; Farnsworth v. Tampa Electric Co. 57 So. 233, 237, 62 Fla. 166. "The automobile may be used with safety to others users of the highway, and in its proper use upon the highways there is an equal right with the users of other vehicles properly upon the highways. The law recognizes such right of use upon general principles.

Brinkman v Pacholike, 84 N.E. 762, 764, 41 Ind. App. 662, 666. "The law does not denounce motor carriages, as such, on public ways. They have an equal right with other vehicles in common use to occupy the streets and roads. It is improper to say that the driver of the horse has rights in the roads superior to the driver of the automobile. Both have the right to use the easement."

MANDATORY QUESTIONNAIRE AND NOTICE TO GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEE / PUBLIC SERVANT

Privacy Act of 1974 (Public Law 93-579)

For all employees of federal, state, county, municipal and township corporations conducting an investigation
The Following Notice and PUBLIC SERVANT QUESTIONNAIRE is based on the requirements placed upon all employees, agents, and representatives of state and federal government, including city, county, state, and federal law enforcement agencies, Supervisors, administrators, district attorneys, attorney generals, judges, justices, and magistrates, by the Privacy Act of 1974 (Public Law 93-579), an amending law to Title 5, United States Code, and is here included as per the provisions of Section 552a, which in part provides :

"The purpose of this Act is to provide certain safeguards for an individual against invasion of personal privacy by requiring government agencies . . . to permit an individual to determine what records (documents) pertaining to him (or her) are collected, maintained, used, or disseminated by such agencies."

As authorized by federal law and the provisions of this Act, the Citizen may require any Public Servant or Government Employee to provide certain proof of employment, bonding information, including full and complete disclosure as to the cause and purpose of any investigation as a precondition to speaking with any government agent who seeks any information of any kind or may stand upon his Fifth amendment right to refrain from self-incrimination and to remain silent as herewith invoked.

The following Questionnaire, a tool of Discovery in legal proceedings, properly documents the government employee/citizen interaction, and must be filled-out by the public servant/government employee before he can ask the citizen any question. In accordance with this provision of law, the prerequisite for the citizen's cooperation with the government is the agent's cooperation with the citizen's reasonable request(s).'

The following questionnaire first provides Notice and informs the government agent that the citizen knows his rights, protections, and immunities, and is aware of limited powers the government agent has been granted or delegated by operation of law, and are based upon that Act and other government prohibitions regarding identity theft and recognition of the corporate statutes that define your employment, but not the rights of the citizen. After acknowledging the following Notice, Please fill out the form completely.

NOTICE OF LAW

Non-emergency use of emergency vehicle lights and sirens is a felony. An emergency is by the courts defined as "a sudden, unexpected, or impending situation, involving injury, loss of life, damage to property, or catastrophic interference with normal activities, that requires immediate attention and remedial action."
"State Police Power extends only to immediate threats to public safety, health, welfare, etc.," Michigan v. Duke; "The police power of the state must be exercised in subordination to the provisions of the U.S. Constitution." (Bacahanan vs. Wanley, 245 US 60 (); Panhandle Eastern Pipeline Co. vs. State Highway Commission, 294 US 613 (1935). "The Constitution is the supreme law of the land ordained and established by the people. All legislation must conform to the principles it lays down. (United States v. Butler, 297 U.S. 1, 56 S.Ct. 312, 102 A.L.R. 914 (1935))

"Federal Law and Supreme Court Cases apply to State Court Cases." (Griffin v. Mathews, 310 Supp. 341, 423 F. 2d 272; Hagans v. Lavine, 415 U.S. 528; Howlett v. Rose, 496 U.S. 356 (1990)). "Every State law must conform in the first place to the Constitution of the United States, and then to the subordinate constitutions of the particular state; and if it infringes upon the provisos of either, it is so far void." (Houston v. Moore, 18 US 1, 5 L.Ed 19 (1840))

Reasonable Cause or Probable Suspicion that a suspect has, or is about to commit a crime involving a victim, injury, or damage to persons or property is required to stop, detain, question, or demand identification from a motorist. "Pretextual traffic stops are a violation of the 4th Amendment." U.S. v. Eldridge, 984 F2d 943 (1993)

"For a crime to exist, there must be an [actual or intended] injured party (Corpus Delicti). Sherer v. Cullen 481 F. 945. A Crime is defined as "That act intended to cause injury to a person or property."

The Supreme court has held that "Without Corpus Delicti there can be no crime"

"[S]peeding & running a red light are NOT a breach of the peace [unless immediate reckless endangerment of another actual person present is witnessed]." Perkins v. Texas, 812 S.W. 2d 326, 329

An American does not have to speak with a government agent, unless the agent can demonstrate probable cause or reasonable suspicion for the stop. "Officer's questions must relate to the purpose of the stop, or detention of driver is unreasonable." - U.S. v. Barahona, 990 F2d (1993)

"Detention must be based on specific, articulable facts (SAF) and rational inferences [pertaining to the suspected commission of a crime involving a victim or property damage]. Unparticularized suspicion and inarticulate hunches alone are not good enough. A valid investigative stop must be based on "reasonable articulable suspicion" (RAS) (U.S. v. Briggman, 931 F2d705 (1991))

REASONABLE SUSPICION. This means that police suspect that you are about to commit a crime involving a victim or damage to property. Reasonable suspicion is the standard that permits police to stop you

PROBABLE CAUSE. This means that it is more likely than not that a crime involving a victim or damage to property has already been committed. Police require probable cause to make an arrest. When a Police officer stops you, you are under arrest. At which point you have a right to remain silent. The officer will lie to you and tell you that you are not under arrest, and begin a discovery process not permitted by law.

"An illegal arrest is assault and battery, and citizen has the same right to use force in defending themselves as they would if repelling any other assault and battery." (State v. Robinson 72 alt 2d 262 (1950)). "[O]fficer who uses excessive force acts in bad faith and may be resisted. (U.S. v.

Span, 970 F2d 573 (1992)) "All persons are bound, without contract, to abstain from injuring the person or property of another, or infringing on any of his or her rights." Cal Civil Code, Sec. 1708. "If police falsely arrest you without Probable Cause [acting outside their authority as delegated by law], they have no qualified immunity and are liable for damages in their private person." (Malley v. Briggs, 475 US 335 (1986)).

RESPONSE TO OFFICERS REQUEST FOR NAME AND IDENTIFICATION

"The right to privacy includes an "individual interest in avoiding disclosure of personal matters." (Whalen v. Roe, 429 US 589 (1977)). "The makers of the Constitution conferred, as against the government, the Right to be let alone; the most comprehensive of rights, and the right most valued by civilized men."

(United States Supreme Court Justice Brandeis in Olmstead v. United States (1928)) - An American has a right to privacy and to be left alone.

"You may refuse to provide the police I.D. or information." (U.S. V. Brown, 731 F2d 1491 (1984)) "You may verbally challenge the officer's actions and ask for his ID." (Galinor v. Roberts, 973 F2d 1379 (1992))

"An information charging the driving of a motor vehicle upon a public highway without a driver's license charges no offense, as there is no such license as a driver's license known to the law." (Keith Brooks v. State, 158 Tex. Crim. 546; 258 S.W. 2D 317).

"Information alleging that the defendant operated a motor vehicle upon a highway without a "driver's license" was held insufficient to charge an offense since driver's license is not known to law." (W. Lee Hassell v. The State, 149 Tex. Crim. 333; 194 S.W. 2D 400).

"You may not be arrested solely to ascertain your identity." (Arrington v. McDonald, 808 F2d 466 (1988))

SEARCH AND SEIZURE

Even if your vehicle is stopped legitimately, the police may not search it without probable cause (or your consent). (U.S. v. Wanless, 882 F2d 1459 (1989))

"Refusing consent for search is not basis for RAS, or Probable Cause to search, or impound vehicle." (U.S. v. Manuel, 992 F2d 272, (1993)); "Government must prove alleged consent to search, and that consent was given freely and voluntarily." (U.S. v. Villareal, 963 F2d 770 (1992)); Waiver of rights must be knowing and voluntary (not under threat and duress). (White v. White, 925 F2d 287 (1991))

"[A] political subdivision of this state may not require an owner of a motor vehicle to register the vehicle...." (Registration By Political Subdivision Prohibited - Texas Trans Code § 502.003); "[A] vehicle for which a certificate of title has been issued but that is not required to be registered, is not subject to inspection." (Vehicles Not Subject To Inspection - Texas Trans Code § 548.052).

Only those motorists in commerce, being the transportation of persons or property for profit [Taxi, Limo, tractor trailer] are required to register, insure, or license.

"The right of a citizen to use the highways, including the streets of the city or town, for travel & to transport his goods is an inherent right which cannot be taken from him." (Davis v. City of Houston (Tex. Civ. App., 1924), 264 S.W. 625, 629). "The right of the citizen to travel upon the public highways and to transport his property thereon, either by carriage or by automobile, is not a mere privilege which a city may prohibit or permit at will, but a common right which he has under the right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness." - (Thompson v Smith 154 SE 579).

"A state may not impose a charge for the enjoyment of a right granted by Federal constitution." (Murdock vs Pennsylvania 319 US 105 at 113 (1943)). Requiring licensing or registration of any constitutional right is itself unconstitutional. (Follett vs. Town of McCormick, S.C., 321 U.S. 573 (1944)); "Should any state convert a secured liberty right into a privilege, charge a fee and issue a license for it, one may ignore the license and fee and engage in the exercise of the right with impunity." (Shuttlesworth vs City of Birmingham 373 U.S. 262 (1962))

"... willful violators of constitutional requirements, which have been defined, certainly are in no position to say that they had no adequate advance notice that they would be visited with punishment. When they act willfully in the sense in which we use the word, they act in open defiance or in reckless disregard of a constitutional requirement, which has been made specific & definite. When they are convicted for so acting, they are not punished for violating an unknowable something." Screws v. U.S., 325 U.S. 91 1945; Police supervisors are liable if they authorize or approve unconstitutional conduct of offending officers. -White v. Farmer, 849 F2d 322, (1988)

Narrow is the Path to the Truth

Right to Travel

DESPITE ACTIONS OF POLICE AND LOCAL COURTS, HIGHER COURTS HAVE RULED THAT AMERICAN CITIZENS HAVE A RIGHT TO TRAVEL WITHOUT STATE PERMITS

By Jack McLamb (from Aid & Abet Newsletter)

For years professionals within the criminal justice system have acted on the belief that traveling by motor vehicle was a privilege that was given to a citizen only after approval by their state government in the form of a permit or license to drive. In other words, the individual must be granted the privilege before his use of the state highways was considered legal. Legislators, police officers, and court officials are becoming aware that there are court decisions that disprove the belief that driving is a privilege and therefore requires government approval in the form of a license. Presented here are some of these cases:

CASE #1: "The use of the highway for the purpose of travel and transportation is not a mere privilege, but a common fundamental right of which the public and individuals cannot rightfully be deprived." Chicago Motor Coach v. Chicago, 169 NE 221.

CASE #2: "The right of the citizen to travel upon the public highways and to transport his property thereon, either by carriage or by automobile, is not a mere privilege which a city may prohibit or permit at will, but a common law right which he has under the right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness." Thompson v. Smith, 154 SE 579.

It could not be stated more directly or conclusively that citizens of the states have a common law right to travel, without approval or restriction (license), and that this right is protected under the U.S Constitution.

CASE #3: "The right to travel is a part of the liberty of which the citizen cannot be deprived without due process of law under the Fifth Amendment." Kent v. Dulles, 357 US 116, 125.

CASE #4: "The right to travel is a well-established common right that does not owe its existence to the federal government. It is recognized by the courts as a natural right." Schactman v. Dulles 96 App DC 287, 225 F2d 938, at 941.

As hard as it is for those of us in law enforcement to believe, there is no room for speculation in these court decisions. American citizens do indeed have the inalienable right to use the roadways unrestricted in any manner as long as they are not damaging or violating property or rights of others. Government -- in requiring the people to obtain drivers licenses, and accepting vehicle inspections and DUI/DWI roadblocks without question -- is restricting, and therefore violating, the people's common law right to travel.

Is this a new legal interpretation on this subject? Apparently not. This means that the beliefs and opinions our state legislators, the courts, and those in law enforcement have acted upon for years have been in error. Researchers armed with actual facts state that case law is overwhelming in determining that to restrict the movement of the individual in the free exercise of his right to travel is a serious breach of those freedoms secured by the U.S. Constitution and most state constitutions. That means it is unlawful. The revelation that the American citizen has always had the inalienable right to travel raises profound questions for those who are involved in making and enforcing state laws. The first of such questions may very well be this: If the states have been enforcing laws that are unconstitutional on their face, it would seem that there must be some way that a state can legally put restrictions -- such as licensing requirements, mandatory insurance, vehicle registration, vehicle inspections to name just a few -- on a citizen's constitutionally protected rights. Is that so?

For the answer, let us look, once again, to the U.S. courts for a determination of this very issue. In Herrado v. California, 110 US 516, the U.S. Supreme Court states very plainly:

"The state cannot diminish rights of the people."

And in Bennett v. Boggs, 1 Baldw 60,

"Statutes that violate the plain and obvious principles of common right and common reason are null and void."

Would we not say that these judicial decisions are straight to the point -- that there is no lawful method for government to put restrictions or limitations on rights belonging to the people? Other cases are even more straight forward:

"The assertion of federal rights, when plainly and reasonably made, is not to be defeated under the name of local practice." Davis v. Wechsler, 263 US 22, at 24

"Where rights secured by the Constitution are involved, there can be no rule making or legislation which would abrogate them." Miranda v. Arizona, 384 US 436, 491.

"The claim and exercise of a constitutional right cannot be converted into a crime." Miller v. US, 230 F 486, at 489.

There can be no sanction or penalty imposed upon one because of this exercise of constitutional rights." Sherer v. Cullen, 481 F 946

We could go on, quoting court decision after court decision; however, the Constitution itself answers our question - Can a government legally put restrictions on the rights of the American people at anytime, for any reason? The answer is found in Article Six of the U.S. Constitution:

"This Constitution, and the Laws of the United States which shall be made in Pursuance thereof...shall be the supreme Law of the Land; and the Judges in every State shall be bound thereby, any Thing in the Constitution or Laws of any State to the Contrary notwithstanding."

In the same Article, it says just who within our government that is bound by this Supreme Law:

"The Senators and Representatives before mentioned, and the Members of the several State Legislatures, and all executive and judicial Officers, both of the United States and of the several States, shall be bound by Oath or Affirmation, to support this Constitution..."

Here's an interesting question. Is ignorance of these laws an excuse for such acts by officials? If we are to follow the letter of the law, (as we are sworn to do), this places officials who involve themselves in such unlawful acts in an unfavorable legal situation. For it is a felony and federal crime to violate or deprive citizens of their constitutionally protected rights. Our system of law dictates that there are only two ways to legally remove a right belonging to the people. These are:

1. by lawfully amending the constitution, or
2. by a person knowingly waiving a particular right.

Some of the confusion on our present system has arisen because many millions of people have waived their right to travel unrestricted and volunteered into the jurisdiction of the state. Those who have knowingly given up these rights are now legally regulated by state law and must acquire the proper permits and registrations. There are basically two groups of people in this category:

1. Citizens who involve themselves in commerce upon the highways of the state. Here is what the courts have said about this: "...For while a citizen has the right to travel upon the public highways and to transport his property thereon, that right does not extend to the use of the highways...as a place for private gain. For the latter purpose, no person has a vested right to use the highways of this state, but it is a privilege...which the (state) may grant or withhold at its discretion..." State v. Johnson, 245 P 1073. There are many court cases that confirm and point out the difference between the right of the citizen to travel and a government privilege and there are numerous other court decisions that spell out the jurisdiction issue in these two distinctly different activities. However, because of space restrictions, we will leave it to officers to research it further for themselves.
2. The second group of citizens that is legally under the jurisdiction of the state are those citizens who have voluntarily and knowingly waived their right to travel unregulated and unrestricted by requesting placement under such jurisdiction through the acquisition of a state driver's license, vehicle registration, mandatory insurance, etc. (In other words, by contract.) We should remember what makes this legal and not a violation of the common law right to travel is that they knowingly volunteer by contract to waive their rights. If they were forced, coerced or unknowingly placed under the state's powers, the courts have said it is a clear violation of their rights. This in itself raises a very interesting question. What percentage of the people in each state have applied for and received licenses, registrations and obtained insurance after erroneously being advised by their government that it was mandatory?

Many of our courts, attorneys and police officials are just becoming informed about this important issue and the difference between privileges and rights. We can assume that the majority of those Americans carrying state licenses and vehicle registrations have no knowledge of the rights they waived in obeying laws such as these that the U.S. Constitution clearly states are unlawful, i.e. laws of no effect - laws that are not laws at all. An area of serious consideration for every police officer is to understand that the most important law in our land which he has taken an oath to protect, defend, and enforce, is not state laws and city or county ordinances, but the law that supersedes all other laws -- the U.S. Constitution. If laws in a particular state or local community conflict with the supreme law of our nation, there is no question that the officer's duty is to uphold the U.S. Constitution.

Every police officer should keep the following U.S. court ruling -- discussed earlier -- in mind before issuing citations concerning licensing, registration, and insurance:

"The claim and exercise of a constitutional right cannot be converted into a crime."
Miller v. US, 230 F 486, 489.

And as we have seen, traveling freely, going about one's daily activities, is the exercise of a most basic right.

(Isaiah 33:22) For the Lord is our judge, the Lord is our lawgiver, the Lord is our king; he will save us.

UNITED STATES of America, Plaintiff-Appellee, v.

Inez Ramon SALINAS, Defendant-Appellant.

No. 89-10350. United States Court of Appeals, Ninth Circuit.

Submitted April 4, 1991.*

Memorandum Filed May 24, 1991.

Opinion Aug. 5, 1991.

Jose H. Robles,

Asst. Federal Public Defender, Tucson, Ariz., for defendant-appellant.

Milan D. Tesanovich,

Asst. U.S. Atty., Tucson, Ariz., for plaintiff-appellee.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the District of Arizona.
Before WRIGHT, GOODWIN and SKOPIL, Circuit Judges.

ORDER

The memorandum disposition filed May 24, 1991

is redesignated as an authored opinion by Judge Goodwin.

GOODWIN, Circuit Judge:

Salinas contends that the district court erred by denying his motion to suppress evidence because the officer who stopped his vehicle lacked founded suspicion of criminal conduct. We agree and reverse.

The fourth amendment forbids stopping a vehicle even for the limited purpose of questioning its occupants unless police officers have a founded suspicion of criminal conduct.

--United States v. Ramirez-Sandoval, 872 F.2d 1392, 1395 (9th Cir.1989). "Founded suspicion must exist at the time the officer initiates the stop." United States v. Thomas, 863 F.2d 622, 625 (9th Cir.1988).

Founded suspicion exists when an officer is aware of specific articulable facts, that, together with rational inferences drawn from them, reasonably warrant a suspicion that the person to be detained has committed or is about to commit a crime.

--United States v. Cortez, 449 U.S. 411, 416-18, 101 S.Ct. 690, 694-95, 66 L.Ed.2d 621 (1981); United States v. Robert L., 874 F.2d 701, 703 (9th Cir.1989).

REVERSED.

*The panel finds this case appropriate for submission without oral argument pursuant to Ninth Circuit Rule 34-4 and Fed.R.App.P. 34(a)

"...engaged in the act of commerce"?? Where's my state registration as a business? Why haven't I been paid??? I haven't taken anyone's taxes for my own use. Your sadly mistaken and misguided. The license is to use "their" vehicles. The license is to use vehicles that are "registered in commerce"! [First of all, you do not seem to know how the so-called "money system" functions.]

Absent a fully disclosed and actual maritime contract entered in evidence and subjected by the court to examination and open discussion, no valid contract can be presumed to exist and no American ESTATE or other vessel can be prosecuted under any maritime or admiralty jurisdiction. All "statutory law" is maritime law... "statutory law" applies uniquely to statutory entities - legal fictions created by statute.

Commerce cannot be compelled. Therefore, the STATE cannot compel anyone at any time to place any car or truck into commerce. Thus, for someone to place a car or truck into commerce, or at least to render it "commerce ready," is for that someone to act fully voluntarily. A "motor vehicle" is a car owned in trust, by which trust that car is voluntarily made "commerce ready." No car is even "commerce ready" by STATE edict, but only by purely "voluntary" conduct by the "owner." The STATE can never produce any agreement that proves up any trust that justifies calling anything relevant a "motor vehicle." Those elements aren't even alleged in any "Accusations".

18 U.S.C. § 31 : US Code - Section 31:

(a) (6) Motor vehicle. - The term "motor vehicle" means every description of carriage or other contrivance propelled or drawn by mechanical power and used for commercial purposes on the highways in the transportation of passengers, passengers and property, or property or cargo.

(a) (10) Used for commercial purposes. - The term "used for commercial purposes" means the carriage of persons or property for any fare, fee, rate, charge or other consideration, or directly or indirectly in connection with any business, or other undertaking intended for profit.

"Personal liberty largely consists of the Right of locomotion -- to go where and when one pleases -- only so far restrained as the Rights of others may make it necessary for the welfare of all other citizens. The Right of the Citizen to travel upon the public highways and to transport his property thereon, by horsedrawn carriage, wagon, or automobile, is not a mere privilege which may be permitted or prohibited at will, but the common Right which he has under his Right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Under this Constitutional guarantee one may, therefore, under normal conditions, travel at his inclination along the public highways or in public places, and while conducting himself in an orderly and decent manner, neither interfering with nor disturbing another's Rights, he will be protected, not only in his person, but in his safe conduct." American Jurisprudence 1st Edition, Constitutional Law, Sect.329, p.1135.

"The Supreme Court has recognized that personal liberty includes 'the right of locomotion, the right to move from one place to another according to inclination.'" Davis v. City of Houston, (Tex. Civ. App., 1924), 264 S.W. 625, 629.

"The term 'Motor Vehicle' means every description of carriage or other contrivance propelled or drawn by mechanical power and used for commercial purposes on the highways in the transportation of passengers, passengers and property, or property or cargo.

The term "used for commercial purposes" means the carriage of persons or property for any fare, fee, rate, charge or other consideration, or directly or indirectly in connection with any business, or other undertaking intended for profit." 18 USC § 31

"Residents, as distinguished from citizens, are aliens who are permitted to take up a permanent abode in the country. Being bound to the society by reason of their dwelling in it, they are subject to its laws so long as they remain there, and, being protected by it, they must defend it, although they do not enjoy all the rights of citizens. They have only certain privileges which the law, or custom, gives them. Permanent residents are those who have been given the right of perpetual residence. They are a sort of citizen of a less privileged character, and are subject to the society without enjoying all its advantages. Their children succeed to their status; for the right of perpetual residence given them by the State passes to their children." The Law of Nations, Vattel, Book 1, Chapter 19, Section 213, p. 87

"DRIVER. One EMPLOYED in conducting or operating a coach, carriage, wagon, or other vehicle, with horses, mules, or other animals, or a bicycle, tricycle, or motor car, though not a street railroad car. A person actually doing driving, whether employed by owner to drive or driving his own vehicle. Wallace v. Woods, 340 Mo. 452, 102 S.W.2d 91, 97." Black's Law Dictionary 4th Edition, page 585 [emphasis added].

"It will be observed from the language of the ordinance that a distinction is to be drawn between the terms 'operator' and 'driver', the 'operator' of the service car being the person who is licensed to have the car on the streets in the business of carrying passengers for hire; while the 'driver' is the one who actually drives the car. However, in the actual prosecution of business, it was possible for the same person to be both 'operator' and 'driver.'" Newbill vs. Union Indemnity Co., 60 SE.2d 658,

"Automobile purchased for the purpose of transporting buyer to and from his place of employment was "consumer goods" as defined in UCC §9-109." Mallicoat v Volunteer Finance & Loan Corp., 3 UCC Rep Serv 1035; 415 S.W.2d 347

By operation of law, U.C.C. ARTICLE 9 PART 1 § 9-109 mirrored by, for example, PA TITLE 13 SUBCHAPTER A § 9102 eliminates any obligation or constraints by commercial regulation.

U.C.C. - ARTICLE 9 (1) "consumer goods"; UCC filings are to give notice on the public side collateral rights-CONSUMER PRODUCT per U.C.C. ARTICLE 9 (1) "consumer goods"; CONSUMER GOODS ARE NOT REQUIRED TO BE REGISTERED

"All household goods owned by the user thereof and used solely for noncommercial purposes shall be exempt from taxation, and such person to such exemption shall not be required to take any affirmative action to receive the benefit from such exemption."

IF THERE IS NO BREACH OF THE PEACE, AND NOT CARRYING PASSENGERS OR PROPERTY FOR HIRE, THEN IT IS AN UNLAWFUL ILLEGAL ARREST An illegal arrest is an Assault and Battery.

- Ask them if there was a breach of the peace – they should answer "NO"
- Ask them if they have a court order – they should say "NO"

- "Since there was no breach of the peace and you do not have a court order, then just so I am aware what is going on here, ...you are not operating in your official capacity but you are operating in your private capacity as a revenue officer under the federal tax lien act of 1966, is that correct?"
- Do you have any evidence that I am carrying passengers or property for hire – he should answer "NO"

- Since you are operating in your private capacity as a revenue officer, and you have that uniform on, then you are impersonating a peace officer (a Felony)

- Tell that everything they are looking for is hearsay evidence and inadmissible as evidence in a court of law

I choose to remain silent and I want my Constitutional lawyer as protected under the 6th Amendment.

"...the reason for the initial detention, speeding & running a red light are not a breach of the peace." Perkins v Texas, 812 S.W. 2d 326

"...engaged in the act of commerce"??? Where's my state registration as a business? Why haven't I been paid??? I haven't taken anyone's taxes for my own use. Your sadly mistaken and misguided. The license is to use "their" vehicles. The license is to use vehicles that are "registered in commerce"! [First of all, you do not seem to know how the so-called "money system" functions.]

Absent a fully disclosed and actual maritime contract entered in evidence and subjected by the court to examination and open discussion, no valid contract can be presumed to exist and no American ESTATE or other vessel can be prosecuted under any maritime or admiralty jurisdiction. All "statutory law" is maritime law... "statutory law" applies uniquely to statutory entities - legal fictions created by statute.

Commerce cannot be compelled. Therefore, the STATE cannot compel anyone at any time to place any car or truck into commerce. Thus, for someone to place a car or truck into commerce, or at least to render it "commerce ready," is for that someone to act fully voluntarily. A "motor vehicle" is a car owned in trust, by which trust that car is voluntarily made "commerce ready." No car is even "commerce ready" by STATE edict, but only by purely "voluntary" conduct by the "owner." The STATE can never produce any agreement that proves up any trust that justifies calling anything relevant a "motor vehicle." Those elements aren't even alleged in any "Accusations".

18 U.S.C. § 31 : US Code - Section 31:

(a) (6) Motor vehicle. - The term "motor vehicle" means every description of carriage or other contrivance propelled or drawn by mechanical power and used for commercial purposes on the highways in the transportation of passengers, passengers and property, or property or cargo.

(a) (10) Used for commercial purposes. - The term "used for commercial purposes" means the carriage of persons or property for any fare, rate, fee, charge or other consideration, or directly or indirectly in connection with any business, or other undertaking intended for profit.

"Personal liberty largely consists of the Right of locomotion -- to go where and when one pleases -- only so far restrained as the Rights of others may make it necessary for the welfare of all other citizens. The Right of the Citizen to travel upon the public highways and to transport his property thereon, by horse-drawn carriage, wagon, or automobile, is not a mere privilege which may be permitted or prohibited at will, but the common Right which he has under his Right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Under this Constitutional guarantee one may, therefore, under normal conditions, travel at his inclination along the public highways or in public places, and while conducting himself in an orderly and decent manner, neither interfering with nor disturbing another's Rights, he will be protected, not only in his person, but in his safe conduct." American Jurisprudence 1st Edition, Constitutional Law, Sect. 329, p. 1135.

"The Supreme Court has recognized that personal liberty includes 'the right of locomotion, the right to move from one place to another according to inclination.'" Davis v. City of Houston, (Tex. Civ. App., 1924), 264 S.W. 625, 629.

"The term 'Motor Vehicle' means every description of carriage or other contrivance propelled or drawn by mechanical power and used for commercial purposes on the highways in the transportation of passengers, passengers and property, or property or cargo.

The term "used for commercial purposes" means the carriage of persons or property for any fare, fee, rate, charge or other consideration, or directly or indirectly in connection with any business, or other undertaking intended for profit." 18 USC § 31

"Residents, as distinguished from citizens, are aliens who are permitted to take up a permanent abode in the country. Being bound to the society by reason of their dwelling in it, they are subject to its laws so long as they remain there, and, being protected by it, they must defend it, although they do not enjoy all the rights of citizens. They have only certain privileges which the law, or custom, gives them. Permanent residents are those who have been given the right of perpetual residence. They are a sort of citizen of a less privileged character, and are subject to the society without enjoying all its advantages. Their children succeed to their status; for the right of perpetual residence given them by the State passes to their children." The Law of Nations, Vattel, Book 1, Chapter 19, Section 213, p. 87

"DRIVER. One EMPLOYED in conducting or operating a coach, carriage, wagon, or other vehicle, with horses, mules, or other animals, or a bicycle, tricycle, or motor car, though not a street railroad car. A person actually doing driving, whether employed by owner to drive or driving his own vehicle. Wallace v. Woods, 340 Mo. 452, 102 S.W.2d 91, 97." Black's Law Dictionary 4th Edition, page 585 [emphasis added].

"It will be observed from the language of the ordinance that a distinction is to be drawn between the terms 'operator' and 'driver'; the 'operator' of the service car being the person who is licensed to have the car on the streets in the business of carrying passengers for hire; while the 'driver' is the one who actually drives the car. However, in the actual prosecution of business, it was possible for the same person to be both 'operator' and 'driver.'" Newbill vs. Union Indemnity Co., 60 SE.2d 658,

"Automobile purchased for the purpose of transporting buyer to and from his place of employment was "consumer goods" as defined in UCC §9-109." Mallicoat v Volunteer Finance & Loan Corp., 3 UCC Rep Serv 1035; 415 S.W.2d 347

By operation of law, U.C.C. ARTICLE 9 PART 1 § 9-109 mirrored by, for example, PA TITLE 13 SUBCHAPTER A § 9102 eliminates any obligation or constraints by commercial regulation.

U.C.C. - ARTICLE 9 (1) "consumer goods"; UCC filings are to give notice on the public side collateral rights-CONSUMER PRODUCT per U.C.C. ARTICLE 9 (1) "consumer goods"; CONSUMER GOODS ARE NOT REQUIRED TO BE REGISTERED

"All household goods owned by the user thereof and used solely for noncommercial purposes shall be exempt from taxation, and such person to such exemption shall not be required to take any affirmative action to receive the benefit from such exemption."

IF THERE IS NO BREACH OF THE PEACE, AND NOT CARRYING PASSENGERS OR PROPERTY FOR HIRE, THEN IT IS AN UNLAWFUL ILLEGAL ARREST An illegal arrest is an Assault and Battery.

• Ask them if there was a breach of the peace – they should answer "NO"

• Ask them if they have a court order – they should say "NO"

• "Since there was no breach of the peace and you do not have a court order, then just so I understand what is going on here, ...you are not operating in your official capacity but you are operating in your private capacity as a revenue officer under the federal tax lien act of 1966, is that correct?"

• Do you have any evidence that I am carrying passengers or property for hire – he should answer "NO"

- Since you are operating in your private capacity as a revenue officer, and you have that uniform on, then you are impersonating a peace officer (a Felony)

- Tell that everything they are looking for is hearsay evidence and inadmissible as evidence in a court of law

I choose to remain silent and I want my lawyer

- Am I under arrest?

- You are being detained

- The courts have ruled that if I am NOT free to go, then I am arrested

- Am I free to go?

NOTICE TO ALL LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS, SUPERVISORS AND COMMANDERS

I am an unarmed, non-combatant and I travel by means of a private conveyance, personal automobile or a personal motorcycle, all of which, being my personal property and private/personal means of conveyance, to get myself and guests peacefully and peaceably, from place to place, in the pursuit of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. My level of competency and proficiency to do said things, is that I've been doing them since the age of majority, peacefully and peaceably. I do this on roads and highways that are literally defined in and by State, Foreign State and Federal Statutes, Codes and Case Law as being; "Every way, lane, road, street, boulevard, and every way or place in the united States of America and elsewhere, open as a matter of right to public vehicular travel both inside and outside the limits of incorporated cities and towns;".

Dear Police Officer, Code Enforcement Officer, Government Agent, Sheriff, Law Enforcement Officer, or Peace Officer, please, read and comprehend fully this Notice before you presume 'Jurisdiction' and attempt to Engage this Common Law Private Sovereign into Statutory Law, i.e.: Public Policy Enforcement/Revenue Generation.

Please be informed that this 'Sovereign Private Traveler' is NOT engaged in ANY COMMERCIAL Activity where MOTOR VEHICLE Licensing is mandatory. This 'Sovereign Private Traveler' is a "Free-Born and Natural (Wo)Man", "riding a motor bike" or "travelling for pleasure in an Automobile", and this "Conveyance" form of "Locomotion" is his/her "Private Property" for private use only. This 'Sovereign Private Traveler' is NOT "DRIVING OR OPERATING a Public Property 'MOTOR VEHICLE' and therefore NOT Engaged in the 'Activity of Commerce', and thereby NOT Liable under the "MOTOR VEHICLE STATUTORY LAW" or subject to your Jurisdiction. If a 'Public Official' assumes Jurisdiction' and insists in his/her pursuit in engaging a "Sovereign Private Traveler" without a "Viable Sworn Claim of Liability", i.e.: 'Affidavit' or a 'Warrant', he/she is "trespassing" and is therefore no longer 'immune to prosecution' and will be 'held personally accountable' in his/her 'Private Capacity' for acting outside of his/her 'Official Capacity' and will thereby be 'charged' with a 'Hostile Act of Official Aggression' in an Article 3 Court.

The 'Sovereign Private Traveler' honorably and passively, presenting this knowledge to you in "good faith", is doing so in an attempt to protect you from yourself. I have a great deal of respect for the 'Public Service' you are committed to, and fully comprehend how difficult it is to seek out and prosecute criminals as I am a son and brother of a retired "Peace Officer" and know where you stand. However, this Notice is presented at a 'traffic stop', and therefore is now a mandatory part of the Official Record of any ensuing action, and MUST be introduced as prima facie Discovery Evidence in said action.

It will be noted that willful suppression of 'Evidence' is a 'Felony'. Any cause of action will result in a lawsuit under USC Title 18, Title 28, and Title 42, 1983. This "NOTICE" has been submitted upon DEMAND of a 'Driver's License', 'Registration', 'Proof of Insurance', or ANY other State issued Privilege, Permit or License.

I am of sound mind and body and reserve all of my unalienable Rights and Liberties. I do not waive ANY of my Rights, EVER. I do not recognise you. I do not under stand your offer. I do not consent & waive all benefit/privileges, and I will not contract with you

I am not a 'person,' a 'federal US 'citizen,' a 'passenger,' a 'corporation,' or a 'taxpayer.' I do not 'drive' commercially. My private conveyance, truck, automobile, motorcycle or bicycle, are my private possessions. The fact the conveyance, truck or automobile I'm traveling in, is not recorded on your States register, exempts STATE jurisdiction. Just as you may choose to not answer my question(s), I am not compelled under law to reply to you either. Officer, I cannot and will not provide you with any information that may later be used against me in a civil or criminal proceeding. This includes producing documents that may or may not be in my possession.

As a 'Private Sovereign traveler, reserving and invoking his/her unalienable Rights this Sovereign traveler, has Constitutional protections.

The most important Constitutional protection being the Fifth Amendment Right: "To Remain Silent" (Miranda Warning). MIRANDA v. ARIZONA, 86 S. CT. 1602, 384 U.S. 436 (1966)

Do not take offense or be insulted because I choose to Remain Silent and NOT be compelled to co-operate with your 'verbal interrogation'.

"The Fifth Amendment provides that no person shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself in a criminal prosecution but also privileges him not to answer Official questions put to him in any other proceeding, civil or criminal, formal or informal, where the answers might incriminate him in future criminal proceedings." LEFKOWITZ v. TURLLEY, 94 S. CT. 316, 414 U.S. 70 (1973)

"The privilege is not ordinarily dependent upon the nature of the proceeding in which the testimony is sought or is to be used. It applies alike to civil and criminal proceedings, wherever this might tend to subject to criminal responsibility on him who gives it. The privilege protects a mere witness as fully as it does one who is a party defendant." MC CARTHY v. ARNDSTEIN, 266 U.S. 34, 40, 45 S. CT. 16, 17, 69 L. ED. 158 (1924).

"...where the Fifth Amendment privilege against self-incrimination is involved...the court has always construed its protection to ensure that an individual is not compelled to produce evidence which later may be used against him as an accused in a criminal action. ... The protection does not merely encompass evidence which may lead to criminal conviction, but includes information which would furnish a link in the chain of evidence that could lead to prosecution, as well as evidence which an individual reasonably believes could be used against him in a criminal prosecution." HOFFMAN v. UNITED STATES, 341 U.S. 479, 486, 71 S. CT. 814, 95 L. ED. 1, 18 (1951).

"In KASTIGAR v. UNITED STATES, 406 U.S. 441, 92 S. CT. 1653, 32 L. ED. 212 (1972), we recently reaffirmed the principle that the privilege against self incrimination can be asserted in any proceeding, civil or criminal, administrative or judicial, investigatory or adjudicatory. Id., at 444, 92 S. CT. AT 1656; LEFKOWITZ v. TURLLEY, 414 U.S. 70, 94 S. CT. 316, 322, 38 L. ED. 274 (1973).

"WE have recently noted that the privilege against self-incrimination --- the essential mainstay of our adversary system -- is founded in a complex of values. ... To maintain a fair state individual balance, to require the government to shoulder the entire load ... to protect the inviolability of the human personality, our accusatory system of criminal justice demands that the government seeking to punish an individual produce the evidence against him by its own independent labors, rather than by the cruel, simple expedient of compelling it from his own mouth. ... In sum, the privilege is fulfilled only when the person is guaranteed the right to remain silent unless he chooses to speak in the unfettered exercise of his own will."

"...there can be no doubt that the Fifth Amendment privilege is available outside of criminal court proceedings and serves to protect persons in all settings in which their freedom of action is curtailed in any significant way from being compelled to incriminate themselves." MIRANDA v. ARIZONA, 384 U.S. 436 (1966).

Please also NOTE: the above, as stated by the Supreme Court, are rights and privileges as guaranteed by the Constitution, and anyone (including judges) who knowingly violates those rights may be civily and criminally liable under several federal statutes. Please see: United States Code, Title 18 Section 241 (Conspiracy against Rights), and Section 242 (Deprivation of Rights under color of Law); Title 42 Section 1983, 1985, 1986 (Civil Rights).

Where an individual is detained, without a warrant and without having committed a crime (traffic infractions are not crimes), the detention is a false arrest and false imprisonment. Damages awarded. Trezevant v. City of Tampa, 741 F.2d 336 (11th Cir. 1984)

Motorist illegally held for 23 minutes in a traffic charge was awarded $25,000 in damages. The above case sets the foundation for ~$65,217 dollars per hour, or ~$1,800,000 (1.8 M) dollars per day. Hence my warning about protecting you from yourself, However, if you want to make me rich - detain me for as long as you like.

Due to this Sovereign travelers past naivety with Statutory Law, this Traveler has since learned that one cannot listen oneself into trouble. This Traveler now realizes it is a Public Official's intent to lure one into a Verbal, then Written, CONTRACT.

Therefore, this Traveler must inform/ remind you of the reservation and invocation of his/her unalienable Rights and not help you to coerce him/her into some Statute of which he/she is NOT Liable.

This Traveler does not willfully choose to Consent to your "Offer to Contract" nor to be 'compelled' to incriminate them self by answering ANY questions and, thereby, entering into ANY sort of Verbal Agreement.

Unless you have a Warrant for this Sovereign Travelers Arrest, i.e.: a 'Valid Sworn Claim of Liability', or have seen this Sovereign Traveler Commit a Felony, you have NO Probable Cause to detain him/her as he/she has the "Right to Free and Unencumbered Travel".

If you are Arresting this Sovereign Traveler Without A Warrant, you must IMMEDIATELY take him/her before a Judicial Officer of competent jurisdiction to Demand a Bill of Particulars to determine whether the Arrest was lawful or if there was 'Probable Cause' for the Arrest, or you will be held personally liable and accountable for False Arrest (Kidnapping) and Sued in your Official Capacity. (see above ref to Trezevant v. City of Tampa, 741 F.2d 336 (11th Cir. 1984) The arrest shall not be based upon hearsay unless supported by a Warrant accompanied by a Bona-Fide Affidavit.

Said 'Warrant' and 'Affidavit' must be based upon first-hand knowledge of the Affiant who has a Claim against him/her, charging him/her with a Felony or other infamous crime. This Sovereign Traveler must be allowed the right to face his/her accuser.

If you deny this Sovereign Traveler that right, it will be a violation of the Sixth Amendment, and if you act unreasonably in your investigation or use excessive force, it will be a violation of the Fourth Amendment. This 'Constitutional Rightful Demand' must be met prior to booking. If you do not comply with this 'Rightful Demand', You maybe Sued.

Hale v. Henkel—the united States supreme Court when speaking on the "Law of the Land," The opinion of the court stated:

"The individual may stand open upon his/her constitutional rights. S/he is entitled to carry on his/her business in his/her own way. His/Her power to contract is unlimited. He/She owes no duty to the state or to his/her neighbors, to divulge his/her business, or to open his/her doors to investigation, so far as it may tend to incriminate him/her. He/She owes no duty to the state since he/she receives nothing therefrom, beyond the protection of his/her life and property."

Thank you for your valuable time and consideration in this instant matter. I value your assistance and respect your obligations.

Notice to principal is notice to agent and notice to agent is notice to principal.

1) I hereby invoke and refuse to waive all unalienable rights protected by the United States Constitution and the Constitution of any State or territory in which any incident of law enforcement against me may occur.

2) I hereby invoke and refuse to waive my right to remain silent and not be a witness against myself by speech or by action as protected by the 5th Amendment

3) I hereby invoke and refuse to waive my right to have assistance of counsel. Do not ask me questions without my council present as protected by the 6th Amendment

4) I hereby invoke and refuse to waive my right to be free of unwarranted (non court-ordered) search and seizure. Your personal suspicions are not legal grounds for search, seizure or arrest unless supported by a court order or tangible evidence of an imminent and known crime (misdemeanor or felony) of which I am a likely perpetrator ("Probable Cause"). As protected by the 4th amendment

5) I hereby deny consent for my detention and I hereby request to be immediately released from custody, arrest and detention, free to continue my private travels and business as is my right.

6) Any failure or refusal by you or your associates to affirmatively, actively and expressly honor any of the above reservations of rights may be criminal violations and/or may cause unjust damage to me and my interests in which case, by your commission of unauthorized actions, you will and do agree to major personal debt and obligation to me for both remedy of, and penalty for, your violations and misconduct and you agree to pay all monetary claims on demand.

12) If I am under arrest I refer you to the invocations of rights above. My cooperation and compliance may not, in any way, be interpreted as a waiver of any rights at any time. My actions, while under threat of force and violence by law enforcement are under duress and, to avoid the violent potential of your armed presence I will comply with your reasonable directives and sustain limited personal disruption in the process to hold you accountable later. In any question of my compliance and cooperation, refer to the declarations and invocations above.

I request that you, at this time, clearly state under the above invocations of rights, one of the following as you are required by law: Am I "free to go" or am I "under arrest". If you seek my lawful detention you must now declare my arrest and show cause and jurisdiction.

11) Since I have and do rightfully deny consent for detention (above), by law you must now either release me or place me under arrest with cause, jurisdiction and proper process. In law, there is no such thing as "forced detention". Detention is voluntary, arrest is forced.

10) I have no intention to interfere with any law enforcement activity or objective and I have no intention to become "belligerent" or "agitated" or to cause any difficulty or hindrance to your authorized and legally compliant law enforcement activity. I will not be "provoked" unless you are provoking me with hostile threats and actions. I am not in protest or opposition against your office, your profession or any of your lawful actions. I am in protest only of your violations of my rights, if there are any, and of your misconduct, if there is any.

9) Under arrest and threat of violence by you and your armed law enforcement associates I will, under protest, be compliant and not resist any reasonable command you may issue unless I find it necessary to act in defense of my health and safety or the health and safety of others present as is allowed by law. I am competent to determine when acts of self defense are, and are not, necessary and justified. Unless you unjustly and/or unlawfully assault or commit battery upon me I pose no threat or danger to you or your associates.

8) If you fail to release me upon presentation of this notice you will be required at a time in the future to show cause for any non-consensual detention (arrest). Your failure to show cause and jurisdiction upon demand will cause major debt and obligation of you to me for all damages, losses, harm, injuries and violations of rights, in addition to possible civil and criminal actions, allegations and reports against you personally.

7) If you do not release me immediately upon reading this notice I will presume you to be under the impression that you have authority and jurisdiction for my arrest for a crime (infractions are not crimes and consent must be obtained from the accused for any detention for an alleged infraction). If it should be shown at any time that you do not have full authority, cause and jurisdiction for my arrest you will be subject to civil and criminal penalty and obligated to major remedy to me. You agree to those terms by committing any unlawful or unauthorized force, command, detention or arrest against me.

Weiss v. Holman, 207 NW 2d 660 - Wis: Supreme Court 1973

Sec. 12-465. Definitions

"Public highways" includes every way or place generally open to the use of the public as a matter of right for the purposes of vehicular travel....

Wamphassuc Pt. Prop. Owners Assn. v. Public Utilities Commission, 154 Conn. 674 - Conn: Supreme Court 1967

Sec 75-1102, subd. C is a portion of the Motor Fuel Tax Law, public highways are defined as:

"The term 'public highways' shall mean and include every way or place of whatever nature, generally open to the use of the public as a matter of right, for the purposes of vehicular travel, and notwithstanding that the same may be temporarily closed for the purpose of construction, reconstruction, maintenance or repair." Identical provision also appears in Section 75-1201(c).
Camden v. Harris, 109 F. Supp. 311 - U.S. Dist. Court, WD Arkansas 1953

"Although 'highway' has a broad meaning (basically including any street, city or rural), the purposes of a highway, as used in the statutory definition, are limited. In defining highway, the statute refers to 'every way open to the use of the public as a matter of right for the purposes of vehicular travel.' It includes those roads ... opened to the use of the public for the purpose of vehicular travel." Wis.Stat. § 340.01(22)

Schultz v. Frisby, 807 F. 2d 1339 - U.S. Court of Appeals, 7th Circuit 1986

"We hold, therefore, that a random stop of a motorist in the absence of specific articulable facts which justify the stop by indicating a reasonable suspicion that a violation of the law has occurred is constitutionally impermissible and violative of the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution. It follows that a random stop solely for the purpose of a documents check is an unreasonable and unconstitutional detention of those in the stopped vehicle..."

STATE v. PROUSE 382 A.2d 1359, 1364 (Del. 1978)

The right to travel means, of course, the right to go from one place to another. It includes the right (1) to start, (2) to go forward on the way, and (3) to stop when the traveler's destination has been reached. To speak to the first two of these as fundamental rights without including the third would be to descend again to the absurd, and so far as the instant case is concerned that is what we have here. But we do not so limit the right. We affirm that it includes the right to stop on the way, temporarily, for a legitimate or necessary purpose when that purpose is an immediate incident to travel. So it is that the texts and authorities declare that the right to stop when the occasion demands is an incident to the right to travel, a proposition so completely self-evident that no authority is necessary to sustain it, and which we would pronounce irrefutable, had it never heretofore been mentioned.

2 Blashfield Automobile Law, Perm. Ed., sec. 1191, p. 321; Fulton v. Chouteau County Farmers' Co., 98 Mont. 48, 37 P.2d 1025; Morton v. Mooney, 97 Mont. 1, 33 P.2d 262, 263; Albrecht v. Waterloo Const. Co., 218 Iowa, 1205, 257 N.W. 183.

The RIGHTS aforesaid, being fundamental, are constitutional rights, and while the exercise thereof may be reasonably regulated by legislative act in pursuance of the police power of the state, and although those powers are broad, they do not rise above those privileges which are imbedded in the constitutional structure. The police power cannot justify the enactment of any law which amounts to an arbitrary and unwarranted interference with, or unreasonable restriction on, those rights of the citizen which are fundamental.
State v. Armstead, 103 Miss. 790, 799, 60 So. 778, Ann. Cas. 1915B, 495.

An administrative regulation, of course, is not a "statute." A traveler on foot has the same right to use of the public highway as an automobile or any other vehicle.
U.S. v. Mersky (1960) 361 U.S. 431

"The right to travel freely from State to State ... is a right broadly assertable against private interference as well as governmental action. Like the right of association, it is a virtually unconditional personal right, guaranteed by the Constitution to us all."
Paul v. Virginia U.S. Supreme Court

- Other Courts -

"The appellant points out that § 39-741(5), 1960 Reissue of Volume 3, Revised Statutes of Nebraska of 1943, defines the term "highway" to mean " * * * every way or place of whatever nature open to the use of the public, as a matter of right, for the purposes of vehicular travel... and that the Nebraska court has adopted this definition in connection with automobile litigation"
Solomon Dehydrating Company v. Guyton, 294 F. 2d 439 - Court of Appeals, 8th Circuit 1961

"Undoubtedly the right of locomotion, the right to remove from one place to another according to inclination, is an attribute of personal liberty, and the right, ordinarily, of free transit from or through the territory of any State is a right secured by the 14th Amendment and by other provisions of the Constitution.

"There can be no sanction or penalty imposed upon one because of this exercise of constitutional Rights."
Snerer vs. Cullen, 481 F. 946

"Heretofore the court has held, and we think correctly, that while a Citizen has the Right to travel upon the public highways and to transport his property thereon, that Right does not extend to the use of the highways, either in whole or in part, as a place of business for private gain."
Willis vs. Buck, 263 P. 1 982; Barney vs. Board of Railroad Commissioners, 17 P.2d 82

"... For while a Citizen has the Right to travel upon the public highways and to transport his property thereon, that Right does not extend to the use of the highways, either in whole or in part, as a place for private gain. For the latter purpose, no person has a vested right to use the highways of the state, but is a privilege or a license which the legislature may grant or withhold at its discretion."

State vs. Johnson, 243 P. 1073; Cummins vs. Homes, 155 P. 171; Packard vs. Banton, 44 S.Ct. 256; Hadfield vs. Lundin, 98 Wash 516

"The Right of the citizen to travel upon the highway and to transport his property thereon, in the ordinary course of life and business, differs radically and obviously from that of one who makes the highway his place of business for private gain in the running of a stagecoach or omnibus."
State vs. City of Spokane, 186 P. 864

"The Right of the Citizen to travel upon the public highways and to transport his property thereon, either by horse drawn carriage or by automobile, is not a mere privilege which a city can prohibit or permit at will, but a common Right, which he has under the Right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness."
Thompson vs. Smith, 154 SE 579

"The right of a citizen to travel upon the highway and transport his property thereon, in the ordinary course of life and business, differs radically and obviously from that of one who makes the highway his place of business and uses it for private gain, in the running of a coach or omnibus. The former is the usual and ordinary right of a citizen, a common right, a right common to all, while the latter is special, unusual and extraordinary...."

"The distinction between the right of a citizen to use the public highways for private, rather than commercial purposes is recognized."
Barbour v. Walker, 126 Okla. 227, 259 Pac. 552, 56 A.L.R. 1049, 1053

"However, a right as precious as the freedom of an individual who has not violated any law to travel wherever he pleases without interruption should not be denied construction not impairing such right is possible."
People v. Utsman, 166 N.Y.S. (2d) 358 (1957)

"It will be observed that . . . a highway, within the contemplation of the act, is, "Every way or place of whatever nature open as a matter of right, to the use of the public, for the purposes of vehicular travel. There can be no question but that this definition is broad enough to include streets in incorporated cities, because they are open as a matter of right, to the use of the public for the purposes of vehicular travel."
Neeley v. Bock, 184 Wash. 135, 140, 50 P.2d 524 (1935).

{13} We recognize that the term "traffic" is limited to travel on a "highway," which is defined as "every way or place generally open to the use of the public as a matter of right for the purpose of vehicular travel, even though it may be temporarily closed or restricted for the purpose of construction, maintenance, repair or reconstruction."
City of Las Cruces v. Lauren Rogers

"The right of the Citizen to travel upon the highway and to transport his property thereon in the ordinary course of life and business, differs radically and obviously from that of one who makes the highway his place of business and uses it for private gain... The former is the usual and ordinary right of the Citizen, a right common to all, while the latter is special, unusual, and extraordinary."

State vs. City of Spokane, supra; Ex Parte Dickey, (Dickey vs. Davis), 85 SE 781

"First, it is well established law that the highways of the state are public property, and their primary and preferred use is for private purposes, and that their use for purposes of gain is special and extraordinary which, generally at least, the legislature may prohibit or condition as it sees fit." Stephenson vs. Rinford, 287 US 251; Pachard vs. Banton, 264 US 140, and cases cited; *Frost and F. Case Law on the term Automobile v.s. Motor Vehicle

§ 31301. Definitions: In this chapter -

(3) "commercial driver's license" means a license issued by a State to an individual authorizing the individual to operate a class of commercial motor vehicles.

(6) "driver's license" means a license issued by a State to an individual authorizing the individual to operate a motor vehicle on highways.

18 USC 31:

(6) "Motor vehicle" means every description or other contrivance propelled or drawn by mechanical power AND used for commercial purposes on the highways in the transportation of passengers, or passengers and property.

There is a clear distinction between automobile and motor vehicle. An automobile has been defined as:

"The word 'automobile' connotes a pleasure vehicle designed for the transportation of persons on highways." American Mutual Liability Ins. Co., vs. Chaput, 60 A.2d 118, 120; 95 NH 200

While the distinction is made clear between the two as the courts have stated:

"A motor vehicle or automobile for hire is a motor vehicle, other than an automobile stage, used for the transportation of persons for which remuneration is received."

International Motor Transit Co. vs. Seattle, 251 P. 120

"The term 'motor vehicle' is different and broader than the word 'automobile.'"
City of Dayton vs. DeBrosse, 23 NE.2d 647, 650; 62 Ohio App. 232

"The term 'travel' and 'traveler' are usually construed in their broad and general sense ... so as to include all those who rightfully use the highways viatically (when being reimbursed for expenses) and who have occasion to pass over them for the purpose of business, convenience, or pleasure."

25 Am.Jur. (1st) Highways, Sect.427, Pg. 717

"Traveler -- One who passes from place to place, whether for pleasure, instruction, business, or health."

Lockett vs. State, 47 Ala. 45; Bovier's Law Dictionary, 1914 ed., Pg. 3309

"Travel" -- To journey or to pass through or over, as a country district, road, etc. To go from one place to another, whether on foot, or horseback, or in any conveyance as a train, an automobile, carriage, ship, or aircraft. Make a journey."

Public Officers, Beware! No Excuses Accepted

By Carolyn H. Mann

Vetere v. Ponce, (1) emanating from the jurisdiction of the Town/Village of Harrison, has recently cast significant public opinion on § 30, Public Officers Law. (2) Although surrounded by political mischief, the case ultimately concerns the perceived right of a duly elected public official to retain his elected post, even though not in strict compliance with a qualifying section of Public Officers Law. The New York Law Journal (3) has headlined its piece on this case (and its most curious sequence of political events) with the words, "Technical Omission Costs Official His Post." We question here whether non-compliance with this statute is properly characterized as a "technical" omission. We submit that the failure to timely file an oath of office is an important and justifiable disqualification for holding public office. Those who are hurt by the consequences of failure to strictly comply, must resignedly accept their fate because, as we intend to show, the purpose of the statute is to secure a trust rather than to punish the careless.

No Exceptions!

Briefly, § 30(1)(h) obligates a public official, whether elected or appointed, to file an oath of office, within 30 days of the commencement or notification of his term. The New York Courts have heard several cases pleading relief from a direct reading of this section, yet all pleas have been to no avail. In each and every case, the courts have read the clear and undisputed language of the statute finding no latitude to permit any exceptions. This piece brings to light the cases of the various office holders whose positions were properly declared vacant by operation of law for non-compliance with the mandate to timely file an oath of office. We will probe why this law, with its seemingly harsh results, is set so firmly into New York Law and whether such law and its consequences should continue undisturbed.

Let us first examine the pleas of the various petitioners asking that their particular set of circumstances be judged worthy of exception when the state clearly leaves room for none.

In 1913, in People v. Keator, (4) the relator filed his oath 17 days after commencement of his duties and in spite of the fact that the relator received the highest number of votes, the Board passed a resolution reciting the existence of a vacancy and properly proceeded to fill the vacancy by appointing another individual. The relator pleaded relief from the Board's action appointing someone other than himself, the duly elected official. The Court concluded:

Taking the constitutional oath of office being a condition precedent to relator being entitled to enter upon the duties of the office, and hence to his right to maintain an action to oust defendant and to recover possession of the office, we conclude that the relator is not entitled to succeed in this action. It would be unfortunate, if the refusal or neglect of a person elected to such office to qualify, as required by the Constitution of the state, could deprive a town of such an officer, as the position is one of importance, and particularly so in certain contingencies.

No exceptions!

...when by one's own actions it is clear that a person knows of his appointment, he should not be allowed to wait indefinitely before filing an oath of office. This interpretation is mandated by the necessity to file an oath of office, which is intended to be part of the requirements making an officer fully qualified to carry out the duties of his office. Thus, once plaintiffs have taken actions as official members of the board, as has been done here, they cannot be heard to claim that they had no notice of their appointments, for without a doubt the contrary is true. [Emphasis added.]

Perhaps the circumstances set forth in McDonough v. Murphy (6) would lead one to expect the court to annul the declaration of a vacancy. Here, two appointed members of the College Board entered upon their official duties and subsequently were officially notified of the appointments. Both filed the oath within 30 days of that official notification, but the Court allowed the vacancy to stand, stating:

No exceptions!

The fact that the Board did not earlier move to dismiss petitioner, does not, in our view, constitute an appointment of petitioner to his position. When a person appointed to office fails to timely file his oath of office, neither notice nor judicial procedure is necessary, the office is automatically vacant and may be filled by the proper appointive power. Consequently, no hearing on charges was required in order to dismiss him from office.

In the Matter of Cornins v. County of Delaware, (5) a public officer entered upon his duties and performed them for some time only to find his position declared vacant. He pleaded before the court that his removal must be annulled for surely his service for such an extended period surely conferred rights of legitimacy to his claim to office. The court disagreed, repeated the clear words of § 30 and continued:

No exceptions!

Neither is ignorance of the law an excuse for non-compliance with the requirement for a timely filing, as the Court declared in Boisvert v. County of Ontario, (7) where petitioner pleaded he was unaware of § 30 Public Officers Law. The court ruled:

The obligation imposed by the Public Officers Law statute is personal to plaintiff, it is an act he is required to do and the office became vacant by the mere failure to file the oath, whether or not the defendants knew or were chargeable with notice that plaintiff had failed to file his oath, and they are not required to make any declaration or give any notice. On his default in filing his official oath "the appointment was violated and the office * * * became vacant" [citing Ginsberg v. City of Long Beach, 286 N.Y. 400, 36 N.E.2d 637; and also People ex rel. Walton v. Hicks, infra].

No exceptions!

That the statute leads to an unambiguous reading is probably nowhere better stated than in Walton v. Hicks, (8) where the Court ruled:

This statute is emphatic and unequivocal. It does not seem possible that it can be misunderstood. In case a person appointed to office neglects to file his official oath within 15 [now 30] days after notice of appointment or within 15 [now 30] days after the commencement of the term of office, the office becomes vacant ipso facto. That is all there is to it. No judicial procedure is necessary; no notice is necessary; nothing is necessary. The office is vacant, as much so as though the appointee were dead; there is no incumbent, and the vacancy may be filled by the proper appointive power.

Certainly, no further explanations of § 30 were necessary. Yet, in 1990 in response to a request, the State Board of Equalization and Assessment (9) clarified the "emphatic and unequivocal" words of the statute:

Both the Attorney General (1976, Op. Atty. Gen. (Inf.) 336) and the State Comptroller (10 Op. State Compt. 332) have issued opinions that the failure of a public officer to file an oath is not correctable, because the statute specifically creates the vacancy without providing a remedy. The provisions of Public Officers Law § 30 creates a vacancy which the appointing authority (e.g., town board, county executive, county legislature) may fill at any time (Public Officers Law, § 38).

The appointive assessor or county director who fails to file the oath of office within 30 days is in the same position as any de facto officer; his or her actions are valid, but employment is subject to immediate termination (Williamson v. Fernalle, 31 A.D. 438, 298 N.Y.S. 2d 557 (4th Dept. 1969), aff'd 26 N.Y. 2d 731, 257 N.E. 2d 285, 309 N.Y.S. 2d 35 (1970); Vesco v. City Manager, City of Yonkers, 69 Misc. 2d 68, 389 N.Y.S. 2d 357 (Sup. Ct. Westchester Co. 1972), aff'd 41 A.D. 2d 833, 342 N.Y.S. 2d 376 (2d Dept. 1973); 1979, Op. Atty. Gen. 198). Although the failure to file the oath cannot be remedied, the Attorney General has concluded that there is no bar to the appointment of the same individual to the same office (1978, Op. Atty. Gen. (Int.) 833). Presumably, such reappointed official would be sure to timely file the oath the second time.

It is important to note that nowhere in the opinion is any mention or reference made to any exceptions to strict compliance with § 30; clearly the legislature intended none.

The administrative explanation of § 30 has been exhaustive and the reiteration of the statute's words frequent. Nevertheless, additional cases managed to find their way into New York courtrooms. In Lombino v. Town Board of the Town of Rye (10) petitioner claimed compliance with § 30 pleading his filing was only one day late. The Court was unimpressed and the Appellate Division stated:

The Supreme Court denied the defendants' motion for summary judgment on the ground that there is a factual issue of whether the plaintiff filed his oath of office on January 3, 1991. However, contrary to plaintiffs contention, even if he filed his oath of office on January 3, 1991, the filing was still untimely. Public Officers Law § 30 provides that an appointive office shall become vacant for failure to file an official oath "within thirty days after [the] [sic] appointment, or within thirty days after the commencement of such term." Here, the plaintiff was notified of his appointment as Assessor in November 1990, and began working on December 3, 1990. Thus, even if he filed his oath of office on January 3, 1991, the filing was more than 30 days after the notification and commencement of his term. Thus, the Town Board properly declared the Office of Assessor vacant.

No exceptions!

Proper Judicial Role: Declaring What the Law is, Not What it Should Be

In the most recent case, Vetere v. Ponce, supra, the case which catapulted § 30 onto a red-hot front burner, petitioner sought to be excused from strict compliance with the statute by arguing first, that petitioner was not notified by the Town Village Clerk to timely file, as required by Law, (11) claiming, in effect, ignorance of a legal duty and second, that petitioner was justifiably distracted from his duty because of the concurrent illness and death of his spouse.

Politics takes center stage here. As set forth in the decision, the Town Village Clerk of Harrison arranged to have all the Republican elected officials report to Town Hall to sign and file the official oaths. Curiously, however, no one reminded or told petitioner, the sole Democrat on the Board, to be in attendance. On February 16, seventeen days after the expiration of the 30-day period, the Town Clerk issued a Certificate of Vacancy and declared Mr. Vete's position vacant because of the failure to timely file his oath. The Board then proceeded, as is its right under law, to appoint another (Republican) to fill the vacancy. This action caused great public outcry, however, urging the appointee to resign. Mr. Vete was promptly thereafter appointed to fill his own vacancy until the next annual election, at which time he would have to run to fulfill the balance of his term.

Mr. Vete sought to be reinstated and reclaim his original position and term and pleaded with the Court to be excused from strict compliance with § 30 due to these particular circumstances. The Court, however, found itself compelled by a clear reading of the statute and appropriate case law to find petitioner's elected position vacant indeed, stating:

Notwithstanding equitable considerations and respondent's consent to reinstatement, the court can only direct reinstatement in the event it finds petitioner was improperly removed as a matter of law. Whether respondents acted unfairly or took advantage of petitioner during a period of personal crisis, therefore, is irrelevant. If this result is harsh, as it is in this case, the remedy lies with the Legislature. In this case, since petitioner, did not file within 30 days of commencement of his term, the office became vacant on Feb. 1, 1996 The Town Board and Village Trustees were entitled, in turn, to declare a vacancy and to fill it. (12)

The situation presented in Vete is illustrative of the problems faced when considering how to avoid equity considerations, and is instructive. Both the Election Law and the Village Law seek to minimize potentially harsh results imposed by § 30 by requiring the Village Clerk to notify officials of the § 30 mandate. The difficulty here lies with enforcement, however. If meeting one's official duty is paramount, enforcement of a law requiring a clerk to notify others of their duty might result in the removal of said clerk for non-performance or non-feasance. This produces a harsh result in itself, and neither does it eliminate, ameliorate or excuse the duty of the official to timely file. There are simply too many possible equity considerations to statutorily exempt some and not others. No excuses, therefore, can be deemed worthy as exceptions.

Finally, Supreme Court Justice Nicholas Colabella, who delivered the opinion in Vete, made a truly correct observation. If § 30 can produce a popularity perceived harsh result by not permitting any exceptions to its mandate, the remedy lies not with the Court but with the Legislature. Members of the New York Bar must agree, for it is surely the proper role of the judiciary to declare what the law is, and not what it ought to be.

Since no exceptions can be accepted by the courts to relieve the demands of the "emphatic and unequivocal" language of the statute, (13) Public Officer, Beware! No excuses under New York Law can remedy your unenviable situation.

Non-Compliance is Not a "Technical Omission"

Is the law acceptable? If not, what ought it to be? Is the law too harsh in its result by not permitting exceptions to the 30-day limit for filing the qualifying oath? We know that the limit was already extended from 15 to 30 days. Should the limit be two months? Is a limit necessary at all? Why should the office become vacant by operation of law "so much so as though the appointee were dead"? (14) What is all this fuss about an oath of office not being timely filed? Is it merely a "technical" bugaboo that should be significantly eased? Or, is the demand for strict compliance rational and wise? This author believes the latter

The New York Legislature apparently believes the taking of the oath of office to be a critical qualification for those in public office accepting the public trust. An oath, we are all aware, is a solemn promise the taking of which is described as "burdening the conscience" where something is present to distinguish between an oath and a bare assertion. (15)

An oath, and its required accompanying and distinguishing act, is what can hopefully establish trust between people. Through this device in a public setting, the people are offered some assurance that the words and actions of public officers are possibly being carefully guided by something other than the official's own set of self serving principles. The swearing-in ceremony is visual and psycho logically binding; the filing is written and legally binding. Is there another act which could as simply convey a solemn promise to behave with a full measure of integrity? How else might the public accept the offer of honest public service if not with a solemn, believable offer being made, by way of oath, to create a contract with all the rights and responsibilities we assume are contained in it?

The public must be offered something which fosters confidence in the official's moral responsibility. The official's conscience must be seen to be sufficiently burdened by something to help assure that the desired devotion to the public's trust might reach broadly into the official's public relations and daily decision-making. It is this promise, this oath of office, which helps to hold a civil society together. .

Certainly, it is an easy task to file an oath of office within 30 days of the commencement or notification of one's term, and no one in public administration should be statutorily charged with informing another official of his or her duties. This is more properly the job of the official and his legal counsel. The purpose of the requirement reflects wise reasoning and speaks to the act being most critical for the health of the compact among the governed and the governors and, therefore, can permit no exception.

The "emphatic and unequivocal" language of § 30, Public Officers Law represents one of the important links in the web of our representative democracy and is on the far other side of a mere "technical" nuisance. To reiterate, Public Officer, Beware! The law as it is presently set forth is there to protect, not to punish. No excuses will save a public term of office without taking and timely filing a solemn promise to the people served.

2 Section 30, entitled Creation of vacancies, provides, in part:
1. Every office shall be vacant upon the happening of one of the following events before the expiration of the term thereof:...

h. His refusal or neglect to file his official oath or undertaking, if one is required, before or within thirty days after the commencement of the term of office for which he is chosen, if an elective office, or if an appointive office, within thirty days after notice of his appointment or within thirty days after the commencement of such term...

Some form of an oath has always been required, for the double reason that only by unequivocal form could the sworn be distinguished from the un-sworn avowment, a sanctions of religion add their solemn and binding force to the act. (Pandects, xii, 2; 3 Inst. 165; 1 Phil. on Ev. 15; 1 Starkie on Ev. 23; Lord HARDWICKE, in Onychund Barker, 1 Atkyns, 21; Tyler on Oaths, 15; 1 Greenleaf on Ev., §§ 328, 371; 1 Alison's Crim. Law, 474; 3 Wharton's Ann. Crim. Law, § 2205; 2 Arch. Crim. Pl., 1723.)...

[T]hese sanctions have grown elastic, and gradually accommodated themselves to differences of creed, and varieties of belief, so that, as the Christian is sworn upon the Gospels, and invokes the Divine help to the truth of his testimony, the Jew also may be sworn upon the Pentateuch, the Quaker solemnly affirm without invoking the anger or aid of Deity, and the Gentoo kneel before his Brahmin priest with peculiar ceremonies... The changes of form incident to the growth of nations and of commerce have been serious, but have not dispensed with a form entirely; . . . A wide scope, a large liberty, is thus given to the form of the oath, but some form remains "essential. Something must be present to distinguish between the oath and the bare assertion. An act must be done, and clothed in such form as to characterize and evidence it. . .

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

In the Year of Our Lord Two Thousand Nineteen

AN ACT
relative to registration of commercial motor vehicles and operator's/drivers' licenses.

Be it Enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

1 Statement of Purpose. The general court finds that the jurisdiction and authority of the 2 department of safety is limited to only the commercial users of the public ways and that the 3 corporate state employees have, by their silence, failed to fully inform the sovereign people of this 4 state that an automobile has been confirmed by Chief Justice Grimes, in 108 N.H. 386, to be 5 "private property" defined by current RSA 382-A:9-109, as "household goods" and "consumer goods"
6 not for commercial use or for profit or gain. Further, the courts have found that corporate public
7 servants who ignore their accountability as mandated in Article 8, N.H. Bill of Rights have by their 8 silence and failure to fully inform the sovereign people of the consequences arising from the 9 corporate "offer to contract," is deemed silent deception and inducement by fraud as well as 10 committing the tort of conversion when taking or seizing the certificate of origin in violation of the 11 Fifth Amendment.

2 Right to Travel RSA 261:40 is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

1. For the purposes of this section:

14 (a) "Automobile" and "motorcycle" means any self-propelled conveyance used for 15 noncommercial travel upon the public ways.
16 (b) "Motor vehicle" means any self-propelled conveyance designed and used upon the 17 public ways for profit or gain in business or commerce.
18 (c) "Household goods" or "consumer goods" has the same meaning as the Uniform
19 Commercial Code found at RSA 382-A:9-102 and RSA 382-A:9-109 and shall include an automobile.
20 Automobiles and all noncommercial conveyances shall be exempt from the license and registration 21 required of commercial motor vehicles.

22 (d) "Operator" or "driver" means and defines one who controls the movement of a 23 conveyance upon the public way for commercial or business purposes.
24 (e) "Traveler" means one who controls the automobile or other noncommercial conveyance.

26 (f) "Common law" means and defines the sole remedy, requiring an injured party and 27 not an ens legis or non-human corporate creation for any controversy arising from or by the public 28 use of household goods or consumer goods such as an automobile or other noncommercial conveyance.

30 II. The department of safety shall provide, at no cost, every noncommercial automobile owner or owner of any other noncommercial conveyance with an appropriate decal imprinted with the words "RSA 382-A:9-109 TAX EXEMPT." The division of motor vehicles shall use their current photo equipment, now in use for drivers licenses and identification cards for legislators, to issue all noncommercial travelers a photo identification card, at no cost, with the words "RSA 382-A:9-109 Exempt" printed on such identification card. This identification card is not a contract, license, or instrument that would require compelled performance by the holder. The front of the photo identification card will have, in addition to the photo, the name and address of the Sovereign American and the language, "State of New Hampshire" across the top, and beneath, "None Commercial Traveler", "NOTICE", and "Pursuant to Article 4 Section, 1 & 2 of the Constitution for the United States of America, the Sovereign who is identified in this photo ID Card is Guaranteed SAFE CONDUCT and SAFE PASSAGE in all foreign States and immunity from any commercial levies or other charges." There shall be imprinted in GOLD copy, the Seal of this Republic with the signature of the Secretary of State as the issuer of the Photo ID. The Department of Safety will notify every law enforcement agency in this State of the limited Commercial JURISDICTION concerning the RIGHT to TRAVEL, and will include in the curriculum of the Police Standards Training Academy, a course specifically and distinctly providing the fact that it is the use of the non-taxable "Consumer Goods" that determines their status or classification.

III. The automobile and all noncommercial conveyances are exempt from registration and taxation and the owner of such automobile or noncommercial conveyance are exempt from the requirement of a license that is necessary for commercial use of the public ways. The deed showing ownership of the automobile, also known as the Certificate of Origin, shall be delivered by the automobile dealer to the purchaser at time of sale, and shall preempt and make unnecessary any duplication of process by corporate government. This mandate shall ensure that the purchaser shall be considered to be exercising the common unalienable "Right to Travel on the public right-of-way in the ordinary and lawful pursuit of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness."

3 Vanity Plate Fees. Amend RSA 263:52, I to read as follows:

I. The proceeds from ~~original license fees as provided in RSA 263:42 and~~ the vanity plate service fee collected in accordance with RSA 261:89, plus the fee for the renewal of the use of such plates, after any refunding authorized by law and costs of such plates or designation of effective periods thereof and issuance of same have been appropriated and deducted, shall be expended for course materials, licensing of schools, and certification of instructors in connection with safe motor vehicle driving conducted in or under the supervision of secondary schools. Such balance shall be kept in a separate fund. The commissioner of safety shall adopt, pursuant to RSA 541-A, and publish, rules governing the courses of instruction and training.

4 Original and Youth Operators Commercial Licenses; Cross Reference Removed. Amend RSA 263:14, III(a) to read as follows:

(a) The director is authorized to revoke or suspend any original license held by a person under 20 years of age after a hearing upon a showing by its records or other sufficient evidence that

1 the driver has committed an offense, excluding the offenses of [RSA 261:40,] RSA 261:59[.] and RSA 266:5, following the issuance of an original commercial license holder has been convicted.

3 license holder has been convicted.

4 5 Drivers' Licenses; Rules. Amend RSA 21-P:14, IV to read as follows:

5 IV. The commissioner of safety shall adopt rules, under RSA 541-A [and RSA 260:5],

6 relative solely to licensing commercial drivers as follows:

7 (a) [Procedures for and information required on driver's license applications, including

8 all necessary forms, as authorized by RSA 263:5;

9 (b) ~~Driver's license examination and reexamination requirements, as authorized by RSA~~

10 ~~263:6 and 263:7;~~

11 (c) Restricted commercial licenses, as authorized by RSA 263:13.

12 (d) Conditions and requirements for a commercial driver's license, as authorized 13 by RSA 263:14-263:33-b.

14 (e) Intrastate commercial licenses for nonresidents, as authorized by RSA 263:39-15 a.

16 (f) Access to information regarding anatomical gifts, as authorized by RSA 263:41.

17 (g) ~~Collection of driver's license fees, as authorized by RSA 263:42;~~

18 (h) Petitions for refund of fees, as authorized by RSA 263:43.

19 (i) Application and requirements for issuance of commercial motor vehicle drivers'

20 school licenses, as authorized by RSA 263:44-47 and 263:49-51.

21 (j) Suspension or revocation of a commercial driver's license or driving privilege, 22 as authorized by RSA 263:53 through RSA 263:66, RSA 263:73, RSA 265-A:26, and RSA 265-A:29.

23 (k) Appeals of commercial driver's license denial, suspension, or revocation, as 24 authorized by RSA 263:75, RSA 265-A:34, and RSA 263:76.

25 (l) Application for and issuance of a commercial vanpooler's permit, as authorized

26 by RSA 376:2, XII.

27 (m) Commercial driver license requirements, as authorized by RSA 263:98.

28 ~~(n) Temporary driver's licenses, including procedures for the issuance, revocation,~~

29 ~~form, and other related matters, as authorized by RSA 263:5-a.~~

30 (o) Format, content and procedures for the display of the notice required under 31 RSA 260:10-a, II.

32 (p) Criteria for waiver of the default fee required under RSA 263:56-a, I-a.

33 (q) Approval of driver attitude programs and fee as provided in RSA 263:56-e.

34 (r) Administrative suspension of motor vehicle commercial licenses pursuant to

35 RSA 265:91-b and RSA 265:91-c and RSA 265-A:30 through RSA 265-A:32, including notices, forms,

36 temporary driving permits, hearing procedures, and procedures for restoration after the suspension 37 period.

38 (s) Establishment of administrative procedures to aid in the collection of protested

1 checks relating to commercial drivers' licenses, vehicle registrations, titles, permits or fees,
2 including provisions for suspension of commercial license, registration, title, or permit.
3 [(f)] (p) Procedures for conducting the problem commercial driver pointer system
4 search, including forms and procedures to be used in conducting a problem commercial driver
5 pointer search as initiated by an employer.

6 Commercial License Expiration. Amend RSA 263:10 to read as follows:

7 263:10 Commercial License Expiration.

8 I. [Except as provided in RSA 263:5-f, I, RSA 263:14, and RSA 263:39-a, III, all] All

9 commercial licenses shall expire on the fifth anniversary of the commercial license holder's date
10 of birth following the date of issuance. The department shall notify each holder of a commercial
11 license by mail addressed to the holder's last known address, or, if the commercial license holder
12 has so elected, by electronic, telephonic, or other means, 30 days prior to the expiration date thereof
13 of a place and time when he or she shall appear for the issuance of a new commercial license and 14 any availability of electronic commercial license renewal.

15 II. Notwithstanding paragraph I, the director may adopt rules pursuant to RSA 541-A 16 providing for the renewal of [either] commercial licenses by applicants on-line rather than by 17 appearing in person; provided that the applicant is otherwise eligible for commercial license
18 renewal, [is not required to submit to a road test under the provisions of RSA 263:7] has submitted 19 proof sufficient to the director that he or she meets the visual acuity requirements for commercial 20 licensing, and has a computerized image on file with the division. A commercial license may be 21 renewed on-line only once in every other license renewal cycle and the next cycle shall require 22 appearance in person at a commercial licensing facility.

23 7 Selective Service Registration. Amend RSA 187-A:39 to read as follows:

24 187-A:39 Application.

25 [(f)] No person who is not in compliance with the Military Selective Service Act as provided 26 in 50 U.S.C. app. section 451 et seq. shall:

28 education.

29 [(b)] II. Be eligible to receive a loan, grant, scholarship, or other financial assistance for 30 postsecondary higher education supported by state revenue, including federal funds, gifts, or grants 31 accepted by the state, or to receive a student loan guaranteed by the state.

32 [(c)] III. Having attained the age of 18 years, be eligible for employment by or service to 33 the state or any political subdivision of the state, including all state boards, commissions, 34 departments, agencies, and institutions.

35 [(h)] A person who has authorized the department of safety to submit information to the 36 Selective Service System pursuant to RSA 263:5-e shall be considered to be in compliance with the 37 Selective Service Act for purposes of this section;

38 8 License Required. Amend RSA 263:1, I to read as follows:

1 I. No person, except those expressly exempted under RSA 263:25 or other provisions of this

2 title, shall drive any motor vehicle upon any way in this state for commercial purposes unless

3 such person has a valid driver's license, as required under the provisions of this chapter, for the 4 class or type of vehicle being driven.

5 9 Possession of License. Amend RSA 263:2 to read as follows:

6 263:2 Possession of License Required. Every person driving a motor vehicle for commercial

7 purposes shall have his or her driver's license upon his or her person or in the vehicle in some

8 easily accessible place and shall display the same on demand of and manually surrender the same

9 into the hands of the demanding officer for the inspection thereof. No person charged with a

10 violation of this section shall be convicted if, within a period of 48 hours, he or she produces in the 11 office of the arresting officer evidence that he or she held a valid driver's license which was in effect

12 at the time of his or her arrest.

13 10 Repeal. The following are repealed:

METHODOLOGY:

This bill repeals laws requiring a driver's license for all non-commercial drivers and the registration requirement for all non-commercial vehicles and conveyances, as well as requires the Department of Safety to issue non-commercial automobile owners a vehicle decal stating the vehicle is exempt from registration and a photo identification card, both at no cost. Vehicles will also no longer require an annual inspection. Lastly, this bill removes the compliance aspect with the Selective Service Act for those who have authorized the Department to submit information to the Selective Service System.

The changes proposed in this bill would result in revenue reduction due to the elimination of licensing, registration, and inspection requirements, both to the state and local governments. If this bill was effective during fiscal year 2018, the following funds would be impacted by the reduction in revenue:

State Revenue FY 2018		Local Revenue FY 2018
Registration	$86,914,267	Local Registration	$267,418,400
Licensing	$13,259,703	Local Highway Aid*	$12,478,734

AGENCIES CONTACTED:

NT 50

The Division of Motor Vehicles' (DMV) driver license software would need to be modified to allow for the issuance of the new type of identification card required by this bill. The vendor has estimated a cost of approximately $300,000 to reprogram the system to issue this identification card. The above cost does not include the cost of design and production of the new identification card. A new card type would need to be designed and produced and the driver license production system would need to be reprogrammed to accommodate production of the new card. The cost associated with this system change is indeterminable at this time. Municipalities may also incur system programming costs to reflect the changes in this bill, the overall impact to local expenditures cannot be determined.

The above state revenue reductions would impact the state general fund, highway fund, and several other restricted revenue funds including: the motorcycle rider safety fund; driver training fund; reflectorized plate fund; and the conservation number plate fund which allocates funds to Department of Transportation, Department of Natural and Cultural Resources, Fish and Game Department, the State Conservation Committee, and the Land and Community Heritage Investment Authority.

*Pursuant to RSA 235:35 ("Apportionment A"), 12 percent of total road toll revenue and motor vehicle fees are distributed from the state highway fund to cities and towns pursuant to the specified formula in the following year (12% of $103,989,447 — $12,478,734 in local highway aid).

Dear MOTGOMERY COUTY SHERIFF,

This message is meant to be routed to the MOTGOMERY COUNTY SHERIFF, and/or any senior officer with command over the person who identified himself to me yesterday as an "Officer W. Mack" with a badge number of "267". Near Davis St. in downtown Conroe around 9pm yesterday (July Twenty-First, Two Thousand and Sixteen), here is a link to a video of the incident

18 USC § 241 – Conspiracy against rights "If two or more persons conspire to injure, oppress, threaten, or intimidate any person in any State, Territory, Commonwealth, Possession, or District in the free exercise or enjoyment of any right or privilege secured to him by the Constitution or laws of the United States, or because of his having so exercised the same; or If two or more persons go in disguise on the highway, or on the premises of another, with intent to prevent or hinder his free exercise or enjoyment of any right or privilege so secured— They shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than ten years, or both; and if death results from the acts committed in violation of this section or if such acts include kidnapping or an attempt to kidnap, aggravated sexual abuse or an attempt to commit aggravated sexual abuse, or an attempt to kill, they shall be fined under this title or imprisoned for any term of years or for life, or both, or may be sentenced to death."

18 USC § 242 – Deprivation of rights under color of law "Whoever, under color of any law, statute, ordinance, regulation, or custom, willfully subjects any person in any State, Territory, Commonwealth, Possession, or District to the deprivation of any rights, privileges, or immunities secured or protected by the Constitution or laws of the United States, or to different punishments, pains, or penalties, on account of such person being an alien, or by reason of his color, or race, than are prescribed for the punishment of citizens, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than one year, or both; and if bodily injury results from the acts committed in violation of this section or if such acts include the use, attempted use, or threatened use of a dangerous weapon, explosives, or fire, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than ten years, or both; and if death results from the acts committed in violation of this section or if such acts include kidnapping or an attempt to kidnap, aggravated sexual abuse, or an attempt to commit aggravated sexual abuse, or an attempt to kill, shall be fined under this title, or imprisoned for any term of years or for life, or both, or may be sentenced to death."

I would recommend advising your officers of the ramifications of these CONSPIRACY AGAINST RIGHTS and DEPRIVATION OF RIGHTS UNDER COLOR OF LAW violations, remedy will be sought in the form of civil lawsuits in both PUBLIC and PRIVATE capacities of each offending individual.

Also, I would like to take this opportunity to advise you that you or your officers may see myself or others traveling in my car with tags that read "DON'T TREAD ON ME", "NOT FOR HIRE", "FOR NON-COMMERCIAL USE ONLY". This is formal notice that you may not violate UNITED STATES CODE when I am traveling in my car either, ESPECIALLY if I am displaying private tags. Or countless Supreme Court decisions on the right to travel. For more information, refer to –

If you disagree with this assertion of my duty to be honorable, to honor all my contractual obligations made without fraud, and to be honorable means that I must do the right and moral thing, without causing harm or using unnecessary force when required regardless of what I am told; I will offer that it is your duty to honor my wish as a peaceful inhabitant of this land.

If you dispute anything in this message or do not provide witnesses with first-hand knowledge and/or evidence that any code, statute, policy, or constitution is applicable to my body without my first having sworn a binding oath, you need to provide this feedback, testimony, or evidence within TEN (10) days of receipt of this message or acquiesce to this notice.

In the matter of SURETY for the LEGAL NAME, I believe that there has been a MISTAKE as the SOLE BENEFICIARY has been INCORRECTLY IDENTIFIED as a party in this matter. If I, AND/OR PERSONS AND/OR FRIENDS OF THE COURT AND/OR SUCH OTHER PARTIES ACTING IN MY INTERESTS, have led the COURT or anyone acting as a MONTGOMERY COUNTY officer/agent in their private capacity or the TEXAS DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE to believe by responding to "You" and or "RICHARD", and or "RICHARD TRAVIS MARTIN" and/or SUCH OTHER IDENTIFICATION THIS OFFICER HAS ADDRESSED ME AS, that I am the PARTY WITH SURETY in this matter, then that would be a MISTAKE and please forgive me. As I have no knowledge of who "You" and/or "RICHARD" and/or "RICHARD TRAVIS MARTIN" and/or SUCH OTHER IDENTIFICATION THESE OFFICERS OR AGENTS HAVE ADDRESSED ME AS, I RESPECTFULLY ASK, by WHAT AUTHORITY is the COURT/DEPARTMENT ADDRESSING me as such?

As the SURETY BOND (BIRTH CERTIFICATE) has been deposited into the COURT/DEPARTMENT, WHAT EVIDENCE does the COURT/DEPARTMENT have that I, as the SOLE BENEFICIARY of the TRUST have any SURETY in this matter? As the GOVERNMENT is the SOLE SIGNATORY PARTY on the SURETY BOND (BIRTH CERTIFICATE), with SOLE AND FULL SURETY as TRUSTEE for the LEGAL NAME, WHAT EVIDENCE does the COURT/DEPARTMENT have that I am a TRUSTEE for the LEGAL NAME.

WHAT EVIDENCE does the SHERIFF DEPARTMENT / COURT have that I am a TRUSTEE and have ANY SURETY with respect to the LEGAL NAME? WHAT EVIDENCE does the COURT/DEPARTMENT have that I am an OFFICER, an AGENT, a TRUSTEE or an EMPLOYEE of the United States of America corporation? WHAT EVIDENCE does the COURT have of any WARRANT OF AGENCY for the principal? WHAT EVIDENCE does the COURT have that there has been any meeting of the minds, any PROPER NOTICE given, any considerable CONSIDERATION offered, or that I have ANY INTENT to contract? Notice: Failure by the SHERIFF, COURT OF MOTGOMERY in their private capacity to respond within ten days from receipt of this correspondence shall constitute legal accord and satisfaction of all claims.

Sincerely,

Richard Travis house of Martin

CALIFORNIA COMMERCIAL CODE
§9109. Classification of Goods: "Consumer goods"; "Equipment"; "Farm Products"; "Inventory"
Goods are

(1) "Consumer goods" if they are used or bought for use primarily for personal, family or household purposes;
(2) "Equipment" if they are used or bought for the use primarily in business (including farming or a profession) or by a debtor who is a nonprofit organization or a government subdivision or agency or if the goods are not included in the definitions of inventory, farm products, or consumer goods.

California Code Comment By John A. Bohn and Charles J. Williams

Prior California Law

1. The classification of goods in this section is new statutory law. The significance of this classification is described in Official Comment 1. Although goods cannot belong to more than one category at any time, they may change their classification depending upon who holds them and for what reason. Each classification is mutually exclusive but the four classifications described are intended to include all goods.

An analysis of the legislative history discloses the fact that all the statutes dealing with the regulation of transportation agencies refer to persons in the business of transportation of persons or property upon the public highways for hire or compensation....

We are satisfied that the purpose of the enactment of the License Tax Act of 1933 was to secure a fair return to the state for the use of its public highways not only from carriers, both common carriers and private contract carriers, but also from the larger class of persons who fairly answer to the description of "operator" therein defined as taxable and who receive compensation, either directly or indirectly, from the use of the public highways. Do you use your car in the way "Equipment" is defined, or do you use your car as the term "Consumer goods" is defined?

The license permits activity that would be illegal without the license. Licenses authorizes the exercise of privileged activity. The privilege to be exercised is inferior to unalienable or fundamental rights secured by both State and federal Constitutions.

The term "license" implies a divestiture of right or title, by the licensee, to the property which is subject to the "license." A "license" is a mere revokable "privilege" to do An act (or series of acts) upon land, and excludes the right or Title thereto.

Motor Vehicle

Vehicle

Automobile

License

Driver

Operator

Passenger

Driving Privilege

If you do not engage the commercial activity that the word "driving" represents, can you be required to apply for a "driver license" and declare that you engage in commercial activity?

If you're not a "General Contractor" can you be forced to get a license permitting "general contracting"?

If you're not an attorney, can you be forced to get a license to practice law?

If you do not hunt or fish can you be forced to get a hunting or fishing license?

Is it possible you mis-classified your car?
Did you use the proper definition to describe your car?

The word "car" merely describes an amalgam of different components. The words "motor vehicle" also describes an amalgam of different components the words "car" is a distinction in "USE" the amalgam of different components the words "car" and "motor vehicle" describe, this is reasonably deduced from the foregoing court citations and codes. One term is a designation of the amalgamated components being for commercial use or application. The other term is a colloquial definition of amalgamated components used to merely travel from point A to point B for private personal reasons of a non-commercial nature.

It can be reasonably argued the terms "covered wagon" and "car" mean the same thing, a device used to go from point A to point B. And it can be further argued that like the covered wagon, the private car is not an item the Legislature has any authority to compel the owner to register unless it was used for purposes which the Legislature had legitimate authority to regulate under the police powers of State government.

Does the Legislature have authority to compel the people to convey an interest in their private property to any government institution?

Government is instituted for the protection, security and benefit of the people;... Article I, Section 2, Constitution of the State of California, 1849

If the Legislature does not have absolute authority to compel the owner of a car to register it, then there must necessarily be CONDITIONS and the TERMS used and published somewhere so that one can come to an accurate determination that the REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS apply or not to their property which they use to travel from point A to point B.

No. 97-202

of June 9, 1997

DANIEL E. LUNGREN

CLAYTON P. ROCHE
Deputy Attorney General

THE HONORABLE DICK MONTEITH, MEMBER OF THE CALIFORNIA STATE
SENATE, has requested an opinion on the following question:

When the owner of a vehicle has been arrested for driving without a valid license and the vehicle has been impounded, may the owner be found guilty of grand theft for removing the vehicle from the impounding agency's custody without permission or authority prior to the expiration of the 30-day impoundment period?

CONCLUSION

When the owner of a vehicle has been arrested for driving without a valid license and the vehicle has been impounded, the owner may be found guilty of grand theft for removing the vehicle from the impounding agency's custody
without permission or authority prior to the expiration of the 30-day impoundment period.

ANALYSIS

Vehicle Code section 14602.6 Footnote No. 1 provides:
“(a) Whenever a peace officer determines that a person was driving a vehicle while his or her driving privilege was suspended or revoked or without ever having been issued a license, the peace officer may either immediately arrest that person and cause the removal and seizure of that vehicle or, if the vehicle is involved in a traffic collision, cause the removal and seizure of the vehicle, without the necessity of arresting the person A vehicle so impounded shall be impounded for 30 days. The impounding agency, within two working days of impoundment, shall send a notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the legal owner of the vehicle, at the address obtained from the department, informing the owner that the vehicle has been impounded. Failure to notify the legal owner within two working days shall prohibit the impounding agency from charging for more than 15 days' impoundment when the legal owner redeems the impounded vehicle.

"(b) The registered and legal owner of a vehicle that is removed and seized under subdivision (a) or their agents shall be provided the opportunity for a storage hearing to determine the validity of, or consider any mitigating circumstances attendant to, the storage

We are asked whether the owner of a vehicle that has been impounded pursuant to section 14602.6 may be found guilty of grand theft if he or she removes the vehicle without permission or authority from the custody of the impounding agency before the expiration of the impoundment period. We conclude that a person may be found guilty of grand theft in such circumstances.

Penal Code section 487 defines "grand theft" as follows:

"Grand theft is theft committed in any of the following cases:

"(d) When the property taken is an automobile, firearm,

Penal Code section 489 prescribes the punishment for grand theft:

"Grand theft is punishable as follows:

"(a) When the grand theft involves the theft of a firearm, by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, 2, or 3 years.

"(b) In all other cases, by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year or in the state prison."

The key statute requiring our analysis is Penal Code section 484, which defines "theft" as follows:

"(a) Every person who shall feloniously steal, take, carry, lead, or drive away the personal property of another, or who shall fraudulently appropriate property which has been entrusted to him, or who shall knowingly and designedly, by any false or fraudulent representation or pretense, defraud any other person of money, labor or real or personal property, or who causes or procures others to report falsely of his wealth or mercantile character and by thus imposing upon any person, obtains credit and thereby fraudulently gets or obtains possession of money, or property or obtains the labor or service of another, is guilty of theft. . . .

In the circumstances presented for consideration, the owner of a vehicle has removed the vehicle from an impounding agency's custody without permission or authority prior to the expiration of the statutory impoundment period. The owner has not contested the seizure or impoundment of the vehicle through the storage hearing procedure established by the Legislature. (§14602.6, subd. (b).) Rather, the owner has taken the vehicle at a time when he or she has no right to possession.

While the taking of a vehicle may ordinarily be considered grand theft (Pen. Code, § 487, subd. (d)), is the vehicle in these circumstances "the personal property of another" (Pen. Code, § 484, subd. (a)) so as to constitute "theft"? In other words, may a person be found guilty of stealing his or her own automobile?

The answer to that question has been settled in California for well over 100 years. In the early case of People v. Stone (1860) 16 Cal. 369, the possession of certain personal property was given by the owner to his creditor until his debt was paid. The Supreme Court ruled that the owner could be found guilty of larceny ("feloniously go away with the personal property of another") if he took back the property without the consent of the creditor prior to the time the debt was paid. (Id., at p.372.) The Supreme Court ruled similarly in the cases of People v. Thompson (1868) 34 Cal. 671, 672 ("If a man takes his own goods from the possession of his bailee, without his knowledge and consent, the taking may . . .

be larceny”) and Jones v. Jones (1886) 71 Cal. 89, 92 (“A man may steal his own property”). In People v. Cain (1907) 7 Cal.App. 163, 167, the court declared:

“... The phrase, ‘personal property of another,’ as used in section 484 of the Penal Code, correctly interpreted, means property in the possession of another who is entitled as bailee, or otherwise, to retain possession thereof for some benefit or profit to himself to the exclusion of all others, rather than the absolute ownership defined by section 679 of the Civil Code. Our conclusion is that the taking of property by the general owner thereof from the possession of one who rightfully holds it as bailee or otherwise for benefit to himself, with the intent to charge such bailee with the value thereof, or deprive him of such benefit, constitutes larceny.” Footnote No. 2

In People v. Photo (1941) 45 Cal.App.2d 345, 351, the court reaffirmed that the phrase “personal property of another” may refer to someone who has rightful custody of the property but not absolute ownership:

“The allegation in the information that appellants ‘took the personal property of another,’ as that term is used in section 484 of the Penal Code, means property in the possession of another who is entitled as bailee, lien claimant, or otherwise, to retain possession thereof for some benefit or profit to himself to the exclusion of all others, rather than the absolute ownership, defined in section 679, Civil Code. . . .”

Here, we are given that the owner of the vehicle has no right of possession at the time of the taking of the vehicle from the custody of the impounding agency. We believe that the foregoing cases support the conclusion that one may be prosecuted for taking his or her own property from another’s lawful possession. A charge of grand theft may thus be proved under the limited facts we have been given. (See People v. Stone, supra, 16 Cal. at 373; People v. Photo, supra, 45 Cal.App.2d at 353.)

We realize that the taking of a vehicle from the lawful possession of another may constitute different crimes depending upon the circumstances, especially upon the intent of the person taking the vehicle. (See § 10851; Pen. Code, § 459; Civ. Code, § 3070, subd. (b); People v. Morales (1993) 19 Cal.App.4th 1383, 1392-1393; People v. Pater (1968) 267 Cal.App.2d 921, 923-924.) Also, “[a] settled rule of statutory construction precludes prosecution under a general statute when a more specific one describes the conduct involved. [Citations.]” (Finn v. Superior Court (1984) 156 Cal.App.3d 268, 271; see In re Joiner (1959) 180 Cal.App.2d 250, 253.) Footnote No.3 However, we do not have facts establishing an offense under any other criminal statute. (See, e.g., People v. Curtin (1996) 22 Cal.App.4th 528, 531 [discussion of crimes of larceny by trick and device and obtaining property by false pretenses.] Accordingly, the general statute making grand theft a crime (Pen. Code, § 487) would be applicable here. Footnote No. 4

We thus conclude that when the owner of a vehicle has been arrested for driving without a valid license and the vehicle has been impounded, the owner may be found guilty of grand theft for removing the vehicle from the impounding agency's custody without permission or authority prior to the expiration of the 30-day impoundment period.

Footnote No. 2
Civil Code section 679 provides:
"The ownership of property is absolute when a single person has the absolute dominion over it, and may use it or dispose of it according to his pleasure, subject only to general laws."
Footnote No. 3
If inconsistencies exist in the punishment for similar offenses under different statutes, it is for the Legislature to consider and address. (Finn v. Superior Court, supra, 156 Cal.App.3d at 271.)

Footnote No. 4
In In re Joiner, supra, 180 Cal.App.2d 250, the court found that the grand theft statute was inapplicable on facts somewhat similar to those present here, since a specific statute covered the actions of the defendant. The Legislature has changed the statutory language examined in Joiner, and it would no longer cover the limited circumstances we have been given. Hence, sections 484 and 487 remain applicable to our situation.

Can one of the sovereign people be compelled to divest themselves of absolute dominion of their unalienable rights and immunities by a municipal government employee without a court order? Can one of the sovereign people be compelled to waive their unalienable rights and immunities suffering under the auspices of metus? Can one be compelled to divulge information that may be used to incriminate themselves as a condition of due process of law? Once the accused exercises their right to remain silent and notifies the arresting officer of the exercise of secured rights at Section 8 of the Constitution of the State of California, 1849, can the arresting officer compel an admission or confession?

"We begin with the fundamental premise that the objective of statutory interpretation is to ascertain and effectuate legislative intent." In determining the Legislature's intent, we are to "look first to the language of the statute, giving effect to its plain meaning." (Kimmel v. Golan (1990) 51 Cal.3d 202, 208-209.) "The words of the statute must be construed in context, keeping in mind the statutory purpose, and statutes or statutory sections relating to the same subject must be harmonized, both internally and with each other, to the extent possible." (Dyna-Med, Inc. v. Fair Employment & Housing Com. (1987) 43 Cal.3d 1379, 1387.) Finally, "reports of legislative committees and commissioners are part of a statute's legislative history and may be considered when the meaning of a statute is unclear." (Hutnick v. U.S. Fidelity & Guaranty Co. (1988) 47 Cal.3d 456, 465, fn. 7.)

"...the well-established principle that "[t]he courts must give statutes a reasonable construction which conforms to the apparent purpose and intention of the lawmakers." (Clean Air Constituency v. California Air Resources Bd. (1974) 11 Cal.3d 801, 813.)

Attorney General

Vehicle Code (1935),

"Section 81. "Street" or "Highway." "Street" or "highway" is a way or place of whatever nature open to the use of the public as a matter of right for purposes of vehicular travel."

"As a matter of right", not "sufferance" which = "government permission". The exercise of constitutionally secured inalienable rights DOES NOT REQUIRE the party wishing to exercise such rights to ASK for government permission which permission is evidenced by the "driver license". The "driver license" is merely EVIDENCE you ASKED for and are in POSSESSION of something belonging to the State and CONSENTED to be regulated by the terms and conditions found within the VEHICLE CODE.

Even as late as 1950, the California Supreme Court said:

"Fundamentally it must be recognized that in this country "Highways are for the use of the traveling public, and all have ... the right to use them in a reasonable and proper manner, and subject to proper regulations as to the manner of use." (13

Cal.Jur. 371, sec. 59) "The streets of a city belong to the people of the state, and the use thereof is an inalienable right of every citizen, subject to legislative control or such reasonable regulations as to the traffic thereon or the manner of using them as the legislature may deem wise or proper to adopt and impose." (19 Cal.Jur. 54, sec. 407) "Streets and highways are established and maintained primarily for purposes of travel and transportation by the public, and uses incidental thereto. Such travel may be for either business or pleasure ... The use of highways for purposes of travel and transportation is not a mere privilege, but a common and fundamental right, of which the public and individuals cannot rightfully be deprived ... [A]ll persons have an equal right to use them for purposes of travel by proper means, and with due regard for the corresponding rights of others." (25 Am.Jur. 456-457, sec. 163; see, also, 40 C.J.S. 244-247, sec. 233.)

Escobedo v. State of California (1950), 35 Cal.2d. 870, 875-876.

If you do not engage in commercial activity that the word "driving" represents, can you be required to apply for a "driver license" and declare that you do engage in the commercial activity the term "driving" represents?

When you signed your name on the application for privileges at the DMV, you did so under penalty of perjury that the foregoing information you placed on the application and other documents was true and correct. Predicated on the foregoing, have you committed perjury? Predicated on the foregoing have you declared to be true that which isn't true?

"A contract may be rescinded by the act of a party entitled and desiring to rescind."

McNeese v. McNeese, (1923) 190 Cal. 402, 213 P. 36.

A contract obtained under any element of fraud such as non-disclosure, misrepresentation, withholding of pertinent facts can be rescinded by serving a notice of rescission.

Prewitt v. Sunnymead Orchard Corp., 189 Cal. 723. [Emphasis mine]

"A writing is 'void ab initio' in the case of fraud in the inception, and it need not be formally rescinded as a prerequisite to right of avoidance".

Bonauci v. Massachusetts Bonding Ins. Co., (1943) 58 CA 2d 657,664.

CIVIL CODE SECTION 1619-1633

1619. A contract is either express or implied. 1620. An express contract is one, the terms of which are stated in words.

1621. An implied contract is one, the existence and terms of which are manifested by conduct.

1622. All contracts may be oral, except such as are specially required by statute to be in writing.

VEHICLE CODE

17453. The acceptance of rights and privileges under this code or any operation of a motor vehicle anywhere within this state as specified in Section 17451 shall be a significant of the irrevocable agreement of the nonresident, binding as well upon his executor or administrator, that process against him which is served in the manner provided in this article shall be of the same legal force and validity as if served on him personally in this state.
[Emphasis added]

CIVIL CODE SECTION 1688-1693

1688. A contract is extinguished by its rescission. 1689. (a) A contract may be rescinded if all the parties thereto consent.
(b) A party to a contract may rescind the contract in the following cases:

- (1) If the consent of the party rescinding, or of any party jointly contracting with him, was given by mistake, or obtained through duress, menace, fraud, or undue influence, exercised by or with the connivance of the party as to whom he rescinds, or of any other party to the contract jointly interested with such party.
- (2) If the consideration for the obligation of the rescinding party fails, in whole or in part, through the fault of the party as to whom he rescinds.
- (3) If the consideration for the obligation of the rescinding party becomes entirely void from any cause.
- (4) If the consideration for the obligation of the rescinding party, before it is rendered to him, fails in a material respect from any cause.

(5) If the contract is unlawful for causes which do not appear in its terms or conditions, and the parties are not equally at fault. (6) If the public interest will be prejudiced by permitting the contract to stand.

(7) Under the circumstances provided for in Sections 39, 1533, 1566, 1785, 1789, 1930 and 2314 of this code, Section 2470 of the Corporations Code, Sections 331, 338, 359, 447, 1904 and 2030 of the Insurance Code or any other statute providing for rescission.

If you have determined that you erred by declaring true that which isn't true, you have an obligation to NOTIFY the other party to the contract so that steps can be taken to correct the fraud. There is no statute of limitations on fraud and an agreement does not become valid over the course of time when there are elements of fraud found in the inception of the agreement.

It can be easily demonstrated that fraud existed at the time the contracting parties first met. 1. The party wanting the benefits/privileges offered by the DMV was unaware that the DMV participated in the regulation of interstate commerce. 2. The party wanting benefits/privileges from the DMV was unaware that the term "driver" represented one engaged in government regulated commercial/traffic activity. 3. The party wanting benefits/privileges from the DMV was unaware that the term "motor vehicle" described a device used for commercial purposes. 4. The party wanting benefits/privileges from the DMV was unaware that the license issued by the DMV authorizes engagement in privileged government regulated commercial activity. 5. The party wanting benefits/privileges from the DMV was unaware that in order to receive such benefits/privileges, they would have to waive their constitutionally secured inalienable rights. 6. The party wanting benefits/privileges from the DMV was unaware that in order to get the benefits/privileges offered by the DMV they must first alter their primary citizenship acquired at birth to that of a second class citizen without access to their fundamental rights. 7. The party wanting benefits/privileges from the DMV must first enter a federal government welfare program, social security. 8. The party wanting benefits/privileges from the DMV was unaware that they were about to enter an "irrevocable agreement". 9. The party wanting benefits/privileges from the DMV THOUGHT they were required to get a license before they could LAWFULLY use their property on the streets and highways they pay for in legitimate taxes. 10. The party wanting benefits/privileges from the DMV was unaware they could not be compelled to transfer an interest in their private property to the DMV

ELEMENTS OF A CONTRACT

When a party files a suit claiming a breach of contract, the first question the judge must answer is whether a contract existed between the parties. The complaining party must prove four elements to show that a contract existed:

1. Offer - One of the parties made a promise to do or refrain from doing some specified action in the future.

2. Consideration - Something of value was promised in exchange for the specified action or nonaction. This can take the form of a significant expenditure of money or effort, a promise to perform some service, an agreement not to do something, or reliance on the promise. Consideration is the value that induces the parties to enter into the contract.
The existence of consideration distinguishes a contract from a gift. A gift is a voluntary and gratuitous transfer of property from one person to another, without something of value promised in return. Failure to follow through on a promise to make a gift is not enforceable as a breach of contract because there is no consideration for the promise.

3. Acceptance - The offer was accepted unambiguously. Acceptance may be expressed through words, deeds or performance as called for in the contract. Generally, the acceptance must mirror the terms of the offer. If not, the acceptance is viewed as a rejection and counteroffer.
If the contract involves a sale of goods (i.e. items that are movable) between merchants, then the acceptance does not have to mirror the terms of the offer for a valid contract to exist, unless:

(a) the terms of the acceptance significantly alter the original contract; or
(b) the offeror objects within a reasonable time.

4. Mutuality - The contracting parties had "a meeting of the minds" regarding the agreement. This means the parties understood and agreed to the basic substance and terms of the contract.
When the complaining party provides proof that all of these elements occurred, that party meets its burden of making a prima facie case that a contract existed. For a defending party to challenge the existence of the contract, that party must provide evidence undermining one or more elements.

Does a Contract Have to be Written?

In general, there is no requirement that a contract be in writing. Although the Statute of Frauds requires certain types of contracts to be in writing, New Mexico recognizes and enforces oral contracts in some situations where the Statute of Frauds does not apply.

One important difference between oral and written contracts is the statute of limitations that creates deadlines for filing lawsuits concerning the contract. For oral contracts, the statute of limitations is four years. NMSA §37-1-4. For written contracts, the general statute of limitations is six years. NMSA §37-1-3. However, if the written contract is for the sale of goods, the statute of limitations is four years unless the parties contract for a shorter period. NMSA §55-2-725. The shorter period cannot be less than one year.

How Is a Contract Interpreted?

The court reads the contract as a whole and according to the ordinary meaning of the words. Generally, the meaning of a contract is determined by looking at the intentions of the parties at the time of the contract's creation. When the intention of the parties is unclear, courts look to any custom and usage in a particular business and in a particular locale that might help determine the intention.

For oral contracts, courts may determine the intention of the parties by considering the circumstances of the contract's formation, as well as the course of dealing between the parties.

As ordered, adjudicated and decreed by an independent non-US citizen 25 member grand jury of American nationals on September 24th, 2013, three times in three separate cases found conclusively that members of all citizenships on the American Continent, to include the responsible corporate officers as defined under Public Law 92-500 Federal Water Pollution Control Act Amendment of 1972 (FWPCA), Sec. 2, Sec. 309(e)(3), also hereinafter RUDRAKAL "persons," and all nation-state citizens and American nationals, the "real parties in interest" foreign to said persons, are suffering from severe bodily harm (and death) directly resulting from said persons trespassing upon the American people's God-given unalienable right to clean water and that above defined persons are continually/daily committing overt acts of trespass in the nature of domestic environmental terrorism operating chemical and biological weapons of mass destruction as defined under Pub. L. No. 107-56, 115 Stat. 272, enacted October 26, 2001 (18 USC Chapter to BIOLOGICAL WEAPONS); and that said persons are continually committing criminal acts of trespass to affect the conduct of a [national] government by mass destruction through negligently causing unlawful discharges of pollutants in violation of a "strict liability statute," Pub. L. No. 92-500, Sec. 2, 86 Stat. 816, enacted (October 18, 1972, Federal Water Pollution Control Act Amendment of 1972 (codified 33 USC 1251 et seq.)); and the person is a responsible corporate officer, a "US citizen" subject to the UNITED STATES [CORPORATION] and laws of the United States; and in collusion with each other are jointly committing unlawful acts of "criminal negligence," crimes of violence against humanity in the nature of genocide and that under "environmental law," harm to one is harm to all; and each person in the capacity of "operator," as defined under section 306(f) of the FWPCA, is unlawfully discharging "toxic pollutants" as defined under section 502(13) of the FWPCA, into a "polluted conveyer" as defined under section 1361 of the FWPCA, and that said persons are again, criminal acts that confirm said persons' lack of standing to be before the court for "unclean hands"; and that said persons are each a "federal" person that is operating in violation of the non-voluntary national "standards of performance" meaning a standard for the control of the discharge of pollutant which reflects the greatest degree of effluent reduction, through application of the best available demonstrated control technology, processes, operating methods, or other alternatives, including, where practicable, a standard permitting no discharge of pollutants to achieve the mandated standards of section 306 of the FWPCA, criminal acts that confirm said persons' lack of standing to be before the court for "unclean hands"; and said persons are unlawfully discharging "prohibited" toxic pollutants listed on the US EPA Toxic Pollutant List, such as #50 Nitrosamines (nitrate/nitrite and compounds) et al., subject to toxic and pretreatment (control technology) effluent standards under 307 of the FWPCA; and which under section 307 is an unlawful act for any owner or operator of any point source to operate said source in violation of any such effluent limitation or prohibition, or pretreatment standard as confirmed under 307(d) of the FWPCA, and by said persons committing said violation(s) constitutes criminal acts of violence that confirms said persons' lack of standing to be before the court, or "WITNESS IN ERROR" against any other man or woman due to said persons' own "dirty hands"; and said persons are each, in their individual capacity, in owner and or operator who is discharging prohibited toxins in violation of a condition for a National Pollution Discharge Elimination System (NPDES) permit issued under section 402 of the FWPCA, absent possession of a permit lawfully issued under section 402(a), resulting in said persons' point source unlawfully discharging prohibited toxins, pollutants such as but not limited to Chloroform, Chromium and compounds, Copper and compounds, Lead and compounds, and Nitrosamines (nitrate/nitrite) into the nations (of America) waters and into the navigable waters of the United States; and despite the fact that the UNITED STATES, the US EPA, the STATE GOVERNOR(s) and all their political subdivisions are operating in collusion with each another, members of the Roman Curia, declared to be a continuing "criminal enterprise" by the SUPREME COURT FRANKS in his Apostolic Letter of July 11, 2013, that stippled said persons of their "governmental" immunity as of September 1st, 2013; and that said persons are employees of a secret society known as the UNITED STATES WASTEWATER INDUSTRY which consists of municipal corporations and employees (of chemical and biological weapons of mass destruction at their home and workplaces) aka FEDERAL, STATE, COUNTY, MUNICIPAL, and DISTRICT governments and their citizens of the United States subject thereto; and, as agents of the United States corporate governments, have unanimously and collectively operated in violation of the FWPCA daily now for over 40 years; and warrants a claim for damage as remedy for the harm; and goes toward the said persons' lack of standing to be before the court or testify against any other man or woman due to said persons' own "unclean hands," a WITNESS IN ERROR; as Jesus said in the Bible, "He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her," John 8:7.

Accordingly, (qui non negat fatetur) applies, he who does not deny, admits [cf. Blacks Law, 4th Edition]; Silence in the face of evil is itself evil; God will not hold us guiltless. Not to speak is to speak, and not to act is to act (Dietrich Bonhoeffer). Therefore, overt acts committed against a real party in interest, absent bodily injury or damage of property, will be construed as an act of ENVIRONMENTAL TERRORISM; and pursuant to the ZERO TOLERANCE Policy and duty (of (claim for damages as statutorily provided for under section 309(d) of the FWPCA (as amended under 33USC1319(d)) shall be immediately executed and authenticated by the notaries as state commissioned officers of the Environmental Court against the liable federal person for set-off.

DECLARATION AND OFFER FOR DOMESTIC & ENVIRONMENTAL PEACE

There is a congressional report by the Environmental Congress that has concluded that the above defined government enforcement agencies and their employees are persons:

1. Who are responsible corporate officers (as defined under Pub. L. 92-500 Sec. 2, Sec. 309(c)(3)) of the UNITED STATES CORPORATION and or its FRANCHISE [E] and its "parishes" (ba counties of the [E]STATE, owned by the VATICAN, a "church," not a state, and who are foreign, inferior and subject to the superior "independent" non-US citizen American national sovereign authority of the people of the nation

5. Who, by ignoring the above referenced notices, are committing flagrant acts of trespass upon the constitutionally guaranteed "bill of" rights of the American nationals to travel freely and to be left alone; and to trespass upon those guaranteed unalienable rights are in fact knowingly and willfully overt acts committed with intent to harm in violation of

(trespass upon) the non-federal American national's rights (property); specifically Article I, effecting the right to peaceable assembly, i.e., "freely travel," Article III, trespassing into the home of the people, i.e., "car, truck, etc.," Article IV, effecting the right to be secure in our persons and houses, i.e., "right to be left alone," Article V, depriving the people of life and property, i.e., "acts of intimidation with a gun," Article V, by taking private property from the people for public use without just compensation, i.e., "any rights of the private civilian national," Article VIII, by inflicting cruel and unusual punishment by contributing to the poisoning of the drinking water supplies and the food, i.e., "murder by poison," Article IX and X, denying rights retained by the people, i.e., "rights to travel freely unencumbered, as is our same right to clean water, clean food, clean air and clean government," and Article XI that guarantees the American nationals their foreign sovereign immunity from any and all acts of trespass by US federal citizens of inferior standing, such would be treasonous acts in the nature of domestic and

6. Who, of a fictitious federal "status" of inferior "standing" of any at all, are subject to Federal laws and statutes, aka Codes, Rules, Regulations and Ordinances of their private corporate non-government organizations having "Duns numbers," and State laws; and

7. Who understands that the people, once harmed, have a right to redress of their grievance pursuant to Article I of the Bill of Rights Amendment for remedy via a Claim for damage due resulting from said harm by acidification exposures to toxic waters; and

8. Who understands and recognizes that the state environmental court has an unlimited authority and duty as codified in 33USC1370 State authority, to administer enforcement as codified in 33USC1319(a) State enforcement and compliance orders; and

9. Who, at their homes and workplaces, are unanimously committing daily violations that are defined as "criminal" acts in the Federal Water Pollution Control Act (Pub. L. 92-500, Sec. 2 of sec., codified as United States Code Title 33, Chapter 26 Water Pollution Control and Elimination, Sec. 1251 et seq.), aka "Federal Water Pollution Control Act," and more specifically described under 33USC1319(c) Criminal penalties; and

10. Who is either the owner or the operator of at least one class or category of a point source as stated in codification 33USC1317(a)(2) that is subject to a effluent standard or limitation (prohibition) that as of July 1, 1973, would be unlawful acts as declared and

11. Who is personally and daily committing at least 6 (six) criminal acts of unlawful discharge of [toxic] pollutants causing serious bodily harm, injury to all members of all citizenships of America, including the "who" of the subject persons above defined; and

12. Who may not be aware they are employees of a continuing criminal enterprise committing acts of criminal negligence of the RWP/CA, specifically:

[X] Criminal violation for unlawful discharge of pollutants [Pub. L. 92-500, Sec. 2, 301(a)/33USC1311(a); Pub. L. 92-500, Sec. 309(c)/33USC1319(c)]

[X] Criminal violation of water quality effluent limitation [Pub. L. 92-500, Sec. 2, 301/33USC1311 and Pub. L. 92-500, Sec. 302/33USC1312; 33USC1319(c)]

[X] Criminal violation of national standard of performance * [Pub. L. 92-500, Sec. 2, 306/33USC1316; 33USC1319(c)]

[X] Criminal violation of prohibition, effluent standard and pretreatment standards * [Pub. L. 92-500, Sec. 2, 307/33USC1317; 33USC1319(c)]

[X] Criminal violation for failing to establish and maintain records [Pub. L. 92-500, Sec. 2, 308/33USC1318; 33USC1319(c)]

[X] Criminal violation for failing to meet NPDES permit pretreatment condition [Pub. L. 92-500, Sec. 2, 301(a)/33USC1312(a); 33USC1319(c)]

All above violations are "continuing" [Pub. L. 92-500, Sec. 2, 301(a)/33USC1312(a); 33USC1319(c)]

- Reconstruction Project for clean water, clean food, clean air and clean government, aka the "National Contingency Plan" as defined in Pub. L. 92-500, Sec. 2, 311(c)(2); and under the Bill of Rights Amendment, Article II, to act in the interest of the Common Good regarding the National Contingency Plan and shall additionally be entitled to:
14. Who, upon acceptance of the American national environmental commission of authority brought regarding the National Contingency Plan, to act in the interest of the Common Good regarding the National Contingency Plan and shall additionally be entitled to:
- a. $5 Billion Indemnity and Surety and identification as exempt from claim – All American nationals and commissioned environmental officials are provided from prosecution under the Federal Water Pollution Control Act. Further, there is a ZERO TOLLBARANCE POLICY for trespass upon the rights of any indemnified. Accordingly, upon any trespass committed against an American national or citizen by any of the above defined, the state Environmental Court (Pub. L. 92-500, Sec. 9) will bring an Environmental Claim against the ENVIRONMENTAL TERRORISTS on behalf of the harmed and indemnified real party(s) in interest. b. John F. Kennedy (JFK) $1 Million Dollar American National Security Bond – The remedy for your 40-PLUS years of harm by toxic waters/unlawful discharges caused by the "failure" of the UNITED STATES and its organizations and their political subdivisions to "administer and enforce" the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, and has caused severe bodily harm to all persons, and death to many of the civilizations living on the American continent. The JFK Bond pays:
- i. 5.75% interest per annum payable monthly (approximately $4,167.00 tax-free)
 - ii. (see www.usca.us/in-god-we-trust-2/)
 - iii. Quality for equal share of "bounty" for capture of terrorists

DEMAND FOR SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE

All Licensing and Government Agencies: Law Enforcement Agencies; State Police; County Sheriffs; and Municipal Police are ORDERED by the state environmental court tribunal to:

STAND DOWN!

If you have previously trespassed upon the rights of an American national since the NOTICE of November 13th, 2013, the date of the first above referenced NOTICE, you shall "rescind" all charge(s) brought against real party in interest as a WITNESS IN ERROR within 72 hours of receiving this final notice and demand. Your failure to immediately rescind the false charges brought absent standing within 72 hours will warrant an Environmental Counter-Claim action in the state Environmental Court, a separate court and court system of nation-state lawfully commissioned officers operating under the supreme commissioned sovereign authority retained by the American nationals. The Environmental Counter-Claim will be for civil damage for the above defined criminal acts committed against the Common Good of the peoples' health and welfare each and every day for the last 40 PLUS years; and continuing to commit crimes of violence contributing to heinous acts of genocide against all American people and citizens alike, causing serious bodily harm to some through state-wide, county-wide and city-wide employment of chemical and biological weapons of mass destruction at your homes and workplaces, discharging prohibited poisons either directly and or indirectly into our nations' drinking water resources in violation of Public Law 92-500 Federal Water Pollution Control Act, et seq. The Claim will be for $2,244,750,000.00 USD per person per point source. Environmental Claims are bonded for $5,000,000,000.00 USD, Bond No. SKR-02011950-2, UCC file No. 2014-189-7321-8, of which a copy of the original is filed with the United States Treasury. A Private Subrogation and Surety Bond No. RFO60678456015 is posted to set-off all costs incurred during the course of administering enforcement of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act for the prevention and elimination of criminal acts of "unbiomimetic terrorism."
